SHOWDOWN IN HARD COAL ISSUE COMES AS PINCHOT MEETS MINERS

CONFERENCE TO DECIDE EXTENT OF MINE STRIKE

ing to Make or Break
checkoff Question in Negotiations

OPERATORS ACCEPT Workers Now Blocking Road to Settlement of Controversy

arrisburg, Pa., Sept. 7.—The hard showdown comes today. This noon Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania will meet the anthracite operators and miners in joint conference to determine whether the nation
witness another long and disastrous coal strike or whether the 155-
miners are to return to their collaries.

The conference will "make or break" on the checkoff issue. Full representation of the union as differently
interpreted by the two sides, again
become the dominating factor.

This statement comes direct from
the headquarters.

Under stress the operators have accepted without qualification the
points of settlement as offered by Pinchot, a settlement of
which to quote an operator spokesman "will add $22,500,000 to the nation's domestic coal bill, or a minimum increase of 80 cents a ton to the public."

The miners are blocking the road.
They accept two of the four points,
but continue to hold out for a dollar and cents' increase for day men,
the low priced men of the industry—
and for the checkoff.

It was learned authoritatively, however, that the miners will back down
on their demand for a greater increase for the day men, accepting the
flat ten per cent for the entire industry—if they are given the closed shop.
The closed shop has become more
than an issue of the anthracite strike.
It was pointed out today, facing the
almost certain prospect of a walkout
in the bituminous fields, next April,
John L. Lewis, international president
of the United Mine Workers of America, is determined that he shall
be prepared for that crisis with 100
per cent union organization with all
of its influence and funds. Only through the checkoff or some other
form of "complete union recognition"
can he be sure of such a weapon.

It was not expected the miners
would break on the checkoff direct.
Rather, Lewis is prepared to use
the day men increase as a smoke
screen behind which he can wage a final fight for the coveted prize of recognition. If the operators would agree "to hire nobody but union
men," Lewis, it was learned, would abandon the checkoff demand—would ever give up the increased wage for day men.

The operators' answer is an unqualified statement they will never agree
to either the checkoff or any other
plan by which they would be denied
the right to employ any men they
may desire.

In the operators' camp today it was learned that the ten per cent wage increase was accepted only because Governor Pinchot had forced the operators in a position where they
would either have to pay the figure named or face public opposition in the inevitable continuance of the strike. The operators, however, have
not receded from their original position that a wage increase is unjustified.

The public, it was made clear
must pay the bill—eighty cents at least on every ton of coal. Spending of the ten per cent increase, it was stated at operator headquarters:

"It is the worst possible thing both
for the industry and for the American public. It is uneconomic and it will add $22,500,000 to the nation's domestic coal bill each year."

Upon Governor Pinchot, it was said
will fall the duty of making this clear
to the domestic consumer, should a settlement be reached and justifying
it as best as he can.

Final instructions will be issued to
the union subcommittee of four by
the full scale committee at a meeting
scheduled for one o'clock following
this milder delegation will present
its final answer to Governor Pinchot
and the operators at three o'clock.

Italy and Greece Agree To Settlement Made By Council; War Averted

Paris, Sept. 7.—It was learned
from an authoritative source this afternoon that the Interallied Council
of Ambassadors has succeeded in drawing up a settlement which is
acceptable to both Italy and Greece,
averting war in southern Europe.

The details will be communicated
to the League of Nations at Geneva.
Italy has been contending all along

that the quarrel with Greece was a question for the ambassadors of the League of Nations because the
powers have not recognized the
present Athens government.

It is understood that the assassination of General Tellini, Italian
chief of the Allied Commission, for
the delimitation of the Albanian boundary commission will be investigated by a committee and that Greece has promised concessions acceptable to Premier Mussolini.

Evidence that the tension has lessened, was revealed by Premier Poicare's arrangements to leave tonight
for his country home at Sampigny

AMERICA RUSHES JAPAN SUPPLIES; FUNDS DONATED

Washington, Sept. 7.—America is
opening its purse in the same generous manner that its heart went out
in sympathy to the stricken people
of Japan.

Funds are pouring in upon the American Red Cross at a rate which
insures a vast oversubscription of the $5,000,000 for which the original appeal was issued.

Official announcement was made
that the $5,000,000 fund is the minimum that will be needed from this country and that Monday is the time
limit set for reaching this goal.

The immediate response of the American people has made it possible to start the work of succor without waiting for the entire amount
sought. The machinery of the purchasing and shipping department, of the American Relief association, taken over by the Red Cross, is working at top speed. The purchase of supplies is under way on a large scale
and shipments are starting at once.

World-wide relief for stricken
Japan is taking definite shape as hundreds of vessels are speeding toward
the island empire loaded with medical supplies and provisions of all kinds.

American Ambassador Wood at Tokio cabled the American state department at Washington that food, clothing and material to construct temporary dwellings are needed badly in
the devastated zone. The ambassador estimated that more than 1,000-000 persons are homeless in the Tokio
area alone.

Twelve American destroyers are
anchored off Yokohama, aiding in relief work. The large naval transport Pecos is loading food and medical
supplies at Manila. Another American destroyer division will sail from Chefoo, China. A Philippine Red
transport Merritt with equipment and
personnel for three complete hospitals of 750 beds each. The steamers
Columbia, Pacific and West
O'Rowa are en route to Yokohama
from Kobe loaded with supplies furnished by the residents of Kobe.

Hongkong reports that the freighter
Grace Dollar is there loading with relief supplies for Japan. It will require six days to reach a Japanese
port.

The United States shipping board
is doing everything in its power to
aid in furnishing vessels to carry
food, medicines and materials to the earthquake sufferers.

FORMER RESIDENT OF XENIA IS DEAD

Mrs. Amanda Parker, widow of Mr. William G. Parker, a former well-known resident of this city, died Thursday morning at four o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G.
W. Racer at 1124 Westwood Avenue, Columbus. Her death was due to the infirmities of age.

Mrs. Parker was born in Brown County, Ohio, May 3, 1838, and was aged eighty-five years and five months at the time of her death.

She leaves four children, one daughter, Mrs. Racer, of Columbus, with whom she had made her home for several years, and three sons, Edward and Alonzo Parker, of Dayton, and Omer Parker of Xenia, and three grandsons.

Funeral services will be conducted in Columbus Saturday morning by the Rev. Pheipher and the body will then be brought to this city and a short service will be held in the chapel at Woodland Cemetery Saturday afternoon at half past one o'clock. The casket will be opened at the close of the service that friends may view the body. Interment will be made in Woodland Cemetery.

HARDING WILL IS FILED ON FRIDAY; WOODWORTH BENEFICIARY

Marion, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Florence
Kling Harding was made the principal beneficiary in the will of the late President Warren G. Harding, filed here this morning by Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty. After her death the property is to be distributed among his one brother and three sisters and his father, Dr. George T.
Harding.

manager of Marion Star, $1,000;
To James Woods, circulation manager Star $1,000;

To wife, interest on $100,000 government bonds for life and bulk of estate.

To Henry R. Schaffner, treasurer
Harding Publishing Co., $10,000;
Ring and watch each to sons of Dr.
George T. Harding Jr., Columbus:
$2,000 each to George and Egan De-Wolfe, grandchildren of Mrs. Harding.
No estimate of value of estate was made.

All residue of property to his brothers and sisters, who share alike.
"I request that no part of my estate
be expended for a monument other than a simple marker at my grave"

one paragraph of the will read.

RE-ELECT OFFICERS OF STATE W. C. T. U.

Columbus, Sept. 7.—All officers of the Ohio W. C. T. U. were re-elected at the state convention here. Those named were: Mrs. Florence D. Richards, Columbus, president; Mrs. Viola D. Romans, Columbus, vice president;
Mrs. H. D. Van Kirk, Columbus, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Sarah K.
Meredit, Canton, recording secretary; Mrs. E. S. Loomis, Lakewood, assistant recording secretary, and Mrs. Frances E. Fuller, Madison, treasurer.

The following officers were renominated by the executive board and confirmed by the convention: Mrs.
Lucy E. Van Kirk, Granville, editor of the Ohio Messenger; Mrs. Fannie Drummond, Oberlin, general secretary, Y. P. B.; Miss Nadine Motts, Lakewood, general secretary of L. T.
L.; Mrs. C. A. Elliott, Columbus, musical director, and Mrs. Emma C.
Quayle, Columbus, pianist.

BALL PLAYERS FILE SUIT FOR DAMAGES

New York, Sept. 7.—Players Sammy Bohne and Pat Duncan, of the Cincinnati Nationals Ball Club today filed suit for $50,000 damages, each,
against "Collier's Eye," Chicago
sports publication, which recently charged they had been approached by gamblers seeking to have them
"throw" a series with the New York Giants.

President August Hermann announced today that a suit for $50,000
would be filed by the club in behalf of the players, both of whom have denied under oath that they were approached by a gambling clique.

CLUE IS FOUND.
Middletown, Sept. 7.—Police today
found a Jordan car, used, it is believed by a trio of bandits who late
last night held up the east end
branch of the Johnson Drug Company.

DECLARES TELLEGEN JILTED HER

Lorna Ambler & Lou Tellegen

Lorna Ambler, beautiful Australian actress, named by Ger-
ardine Farrar as one of the co-
respondents in her sensational
New York divorce from Lou Tellegen, announced that she
was to marry Tellegen on September 27, when Miss Farrar's

interlocutory decree became
final. Tellegen rose up to say
"twasnt so," whereupon Miss
Ambler said they were engaged,
but she had been jilted by the
actor.

PESTILENCE SPREAD RETARDS RELIEF

Kobe, Japan, Sept. 7.—The ground
in Yokohama sank three feet almost
instantly when the great earthquake
broke, wrecking almost every building. There was no chance of rescuing the inhabitants. Fires broke out
simultaneously in a hundred places.

The destruction of Yokohama is complete. The earthquake smashed
the subterranean tanks on the hillside above the naval station releasing 500,000 tons of oil, which swept
through and demolished the town, and
a river of flame from which there was no escape for thousands.

The burning oil spread over the harbor
causing terror and panic.

It is reported that cholera has
broken out in Yokohama, where the people were forced to drink muddy
water from the ditches and eat food to avoid starvation. The spread of pestilence is complicating the work
of relief.

Cincinnati, Sept. 7.—Authorities are investigating the finding of two skeletons at the edge of Mariemont, the model town being built by Mrs. Emery, southeast of Madisonville. The skeletons were those of a man and
woman, and were found by workmen
who were digging a trench for the installation of the water system for the new town.

EMPEROR EXPRESSES GRATI- TUDE

Shanghai, Sept. 7.—Tokio reports
reaching Shanghai indicate that the Emperor Yoshihito of Japan has sent
the following message of gratitude to President Coolidge of the United States: "Deeply touched by your profound sympathy and kindest offer in our appalling calamity. I beg you to accept my heartfelt gratitude to you
and the American people."

Akron, O., Sept. 7.—Lloyd D. Carter, director of safety for Akron, denied the charge of State Prohibition
Inspector McDonald that Akron officials were not enforcing the prohibition laws. He said that if his reputed charges to Governor Donahay concerning Akron were actually made, the dry inspector is guilty of an "unqualified lie."

LAND ADDITIONAL TROOPS AT CORFU; TOWN IS CLOSED

Athens, Sept. 7.—One thousand additional troops have been landed at Corfu, said a dispatch from that city today. The town has been closed except for communication with the outside world, under military censorship.

Greece has started an independent inquiry into the assassination of General Tellini and four other Italians, which was responsible for the Italian-Greek dispute. It is understood the investigators have learned the names of several Albanians who will be held directly responsible for the murders.

A proclamation has been issued offering 1,000,000 drachmas for the murderers.

Corfu is quiet except for unimportant incidents connected with the Italian search for arms. Newspapers charge that Italians in various provincial towns are guilty of provocative conduct, inciting disorders.

The Greek foreign minister has complained to the Italian legation that Italian newspapers are printing statements detrimental to Greece, thus causing ill feeling.

CONFESION ALLEGED

Berlin, Sept. 7.—It is learned that the men who were arrested for attempting to abduct Grover Cleveland Bergdoll have made a complete confession. Lieutenant Hoover Griffin said that their automobile and the inhabitants of Ludwigshafen were filmed as they were crossing the Rhine bridge at that point on their way to try to kidnap Bergdoll, says
the report of the confession. He added that arrangements had been made to film the party on its return to Ludwigshafen, Strassburg and Paris.
If the plan for the kidnapping worked out successfully.

DRY OFFICER SHOT

Zanesville, O., Sept. 7.—Clarence Walters pleaded guilty to shooting with intent to kill J. E. Pangle, special state prohibition officer, during a raid conducted by the latter, near here. Walters was disarmed by deputies who were with Pangle, after Walters had fired at the dry agent.
Pangle was wounded in the neck by the shot. He will recover. Walters was bound over to the grand jury on $5,000 bond. He pleaded not guilty to a charge of violating the dry laws.

Beautiful Cities of Tokio and Yokohama Are Blackened
Wastes Resembling Belgium After German
Invasion During War.

Kobe, Japan, Sept. 6.—(Delayed)
—A report has reached here today
that, because of the scarcity of food
and water in Yokohama, an epidemic
of cholera and dysentery has broken
out.

BY DUKE N. PARRY, I. N. S.

Kobe, Japan, Sept. 7.—Half a million persons lost their lives in the Japanese disaster.

Refugees arriving here from Yokohama and Tokio today stated that unquestionably the total death toll
will reach this great figure.

The number of dead in Tokio
alone will total 25,000. Property
damage is incalculable.

No persons are being admitted to Tokio who have not sufficient food
rations for themselves.

The great Japanese naval base at Yokosuka was practically destroyed
by munitions explosions. The Koishiyawa arsenal also was ruined by explosions.

The destruction of these two naval bases is the greatest loss to Japan's
national defense.

Warships which were in the harbor
at Yokosuka were badly damaged.
Several members of the imperial family here were killed. They include Kaitcho, who was smothered to death
in the collapse of a train at Yokosuka.

Prince Kanin's daughter the second
son of Prince Higashikuni and Prince Takashige were killed at Shimizu.

Temporary transportation service is being arranged between Yokohama and Shimizu.

Emperor Yoshito contributed 10, 000,000 yen for immediate relief of
the stricken in the capital city.

The beautiful cities of Tokio and
Yokohama are today a blackened

VERSAILLES TREATY RAPPED BY WOOD AS CAUSING WAR

Washington, Sept. 7.—"Anyone who goes to Europe, sees conditions as
they exist there and comes back advocating that we have anything to do
be treated for something wrong under
his hat," Representative Wood, Republican of Indiana, declared at the white house just after he had called
on President Coolidge. Wood added:
"There is only one way in which
the United States should take a hand
over there, and that is to serve non-com on France that she must pay the
some arrangement to fund it as Great Britain did."

"I don't think France believes it
was ever intended that she should pay this debt. While in France I was told that when the Versailles treaty
was being negotiated, Premier Clemenceau asked President Wilson what
the attitude of the United States
would be in regard to this debt, and
that Wilson replied that its repayment
would depend on the action of the league of nations."

"There can never be any peace in Europe until steps are taken to undo
the Versailles treaty. No nation over
there has any respect for it. They are all carrying on in a way that is
a virtual declaration for more war,
and more war is inevitable as long
as that treaty stands."

"The present attitude of Italy is
an illustration of this. An outbreak involving the whole of Europe can be looked for at any time. I would not be surprised to see a revolution in Germany within the next three months, as soon as the German people begin to feel the pinch of winter
cold and hunger."

"The attitude of France is reproach-
ed everywhere one goes in Europe.
The whole continent is alarmed over
the large military establishment she
is building up."

"France today has an army of 950,
000. She is maintaining 400,000 soldiers in Poland. The Turkish and Rumanian armies are offered by Frenchmen. Recently France floated
a big loan for Belgium. The rest of Europe is trembling in fear of this
enormous military power under French domination."

Both cities resemble Belgium
after the invasion of the German army.

An inferno is everywhere: American, British and other foreigners at Yokohama vainly search the seashore
for launches to carry them to ships
in the harbor which will take them to their homes.

Thousands of refugees who have been unable to leave the stricken city
are facing starvation or worse—death
by thirst. There is no food available and the water mains are broken.

There are few wells—but these are polluted.

Dead fill the streets of Japan's greatest seaport.

The major portion of modern Japan has virtually ceased to exist, due to the severe earth tremors of Saturday and Sunday and the fires which are raging uncontrolled.

First reports of the appalling disaster were not overdrawn, for official announcement just made by the Japanese home office bear out almost every detail sent out unofficially from the doomed area.

Yokohama is annihilated, with blackened walls of but two buildings left standing as pitiful remnants of a once great port. These structures are officially reported to be the marine court and the headquarters of the chamber of commerce.

Two-thirds of Tokio are in ruins,
with only three city wards left untouched by flame. The dead in Tokio is officially estimated at 30,000 persons, including Americans and other foreigners. One hundred thousand people were injured, many of them seriously. Houses destroyed in the capital city number more than 350, 000, the home office announced officially. Unofficial figures, however, set the dead in Tokio at 150,000 with a similar toll of 100,000 in Yokohama.

In Tokio following the disastrous earthquake, fire broke out in scores of places and combined to form a veritable whirlwind of flame which swept through two-thirds of the city before desperate efforts of fire fighters were successful in bringing it under control. Tons of dynamite are reported to have been used to stay the flames. Within an incredibly short period of time the entire down town section was a charred heap of debris, every building there being entirely destroyed.

All foreign legations and embassies crumbled into ruins, including those of the United States, Italy, France, Great Britain and China. Whatever might have been left of these structures after the shock was entirely consumed by flames. Government buildings and the Imperial university were among structures destroyed.

First Shock Created Havoc

The first earthquake shock—which was the one that caused most of the havoc and destruction—vibrated throughout Tokio around noon of Saturday, Sept. 1. Water mains immediately ruptured and the electric light system was placed out of commission. A pandemonium that for all time will defy adequate description was instantly set loose.

The fire that obliterated Yokohama
was started when a number of oil tanks exploded in that port. Gigantic flames immediately flashed upon the city and after burning fiercely for three days and nights completely wiped Japan's great port from the face of the earth.

Every inch of ground between Tokio and Kamakura, twelve miles to the south of Yokohama, is a barren waste.
What earthquakes and fire did not succeed in bringing to the ground, tidal wave and typhoon did, with horrible loss of life.

Besides the fearful damage and destruction in Tokio and Yokohama
the cities of Kamakura, Odawara, Oyama, Gotama, Mishima, Atami,
Ito, Shimoda, Chiba, Hachioji, Kawa-
guchi and Kofu were also devastated, according to the official Japanese home office statement.

Over 2,000,000 homeless are in a
pitiable condition throughout the devastated zone. Shelter, provisions and drinking water are very scarce and
terrible suffering is reported.

base at Yokosuka is unknown to
the home office officials. Reports
have been persistent for the last few days that this monster station was totally destroyed.

More than seventy foreign dead
have been identified at the time of this writing. Most of them perished
in Yokohama. Among them are in-

XENIA SPORTSMEN TO HELP REPRESENT CINCINNATI DIVISION IN RAILWAY MEET

Many Xenia athletes will be represented on the athletic teams of the Cincinnati Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad taking part in the annual elimination contests at Logansport, Indiana, Saturday, to select representatives of the western region to meet eastern champions at Altoona, Pa., in the annual field and athletic event of the Pennsylvania Railroad, September 22.

Each of the divisions of the Pennsylvania Lines west of Pittsburgh will be represented in the elimination matches at Logansport by teams from practically every kind of sport, including mostly field events, running, swimming, rifle shooting, clay bird shooting, horseshoe pitching, quail pitching, golf, tennis and other branches of sport endeavor.

The Cincinnati Division rifle team, composed mostly Xenia marksmen, won the right to represent the western region at the national events last year, but lost to a crack eastern team. This time the Cincinnati Division team is entering the elimination lists not only with the determination of winning the western region championship but also to take the championship of the entire system at the national meet later.

The rifle team is composed of ten marksmen, eight of who are from Xenia. The team members are J. C. Denham, W. C. Jones, D. E. Martin, B. E. Vickers, J. G. McNeill, E. F. Mays, J. A. Simson, Roy Jones, all of Xenia and Cundiff and Pemberton of Cincinnati. Five members of the team that will represent the division in the trap shooting elimination tournament are from Xenia. They are Ted Murray, O. Swigart, C. J. Kussmaul, Ray Eagle and Wilbur Panacke. The Ervin brothers of Selma, Brown of South Charleston and Smith and Dimmit of Morrow are also members.

FIRPO SEES BEAUTY PARADE

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 7.—Luis Angel Firpo, challenger for Jack Dempsey's crown, laid off training to join with the other half a million temporary residents of Atlantic City in witnessing the annual boardwalk parade. Firpo, enthusiastic as the display of inter-city beauties, waxed eloquent on the spectacle, but was recognized by but few in the passing throng. Lee Gates and young Bob Fitzsimmons, it was announced, will join the Firpo training camp today, and a steady grind of work will be kept up for the next six days in order to keep the challenger in the excellent physical condition he now appears to be.

NO CHANCE FOR WILLS

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Incensed by the actions of Harry Wills in attempting to halt his fight with Luis Firpo, Jack Dempsey declared: "I have always been willing to give Wills a fight, but just about now I am so disgusted with the tactics of his manager that I am about to resolve never to let Wills get a crack at the title. I'd like to say that after my fight with Firpo I shall go back to California immediately. Who knows but what a short time afterwards I may be married to a girl who may have an idea that I should retire from active ring warfare."

COMMERCIALS AND BOWERSVILLE WILL MEET HERE SUNDAY

If previous contests may be taken as any criterion, the game between the Xenia Commercials and Bowersville, which will pinch-hit for the usual Bayliff game at Washington Park, Sunday, should furnish an interesting afternoon of baseball.

The Commercials played the initial encounter with Bowersville on the latter's diamond, and lost 3 to 2, in a well played game. The result of the initial fracas proved the teams are evenly matched and the slight advantage gleaned from playing before a home crowd may be the straw that will turn the result in the opposite direction.

Manager Lewis has booked LeRoy Regan to pitch for the rope makers Sunday and either Randall or Murrell will be behind the bat. All players are expected to meet at Willow Tree Park Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. Players expected at the meeting are Caudill, Considine, Rozzell, Robinette, Howell, Hyde, M. Leahy, Soddors, Randall, Murrell, Milburn, Regan, Dill, Comfort, Cannon and Ballard.

BILL LANGE DRAWS TOUGH ASSIGNMENT AT MUSKINGUM, O.

Bill Lange, who helped make football history at Wittenberg, Springfield, a couple of years ago under Coach "King" Godfrey, has drawn his first real coaching assignment, by signing up to tackle the task of developing Muskingum College into a local Ohio Conference contender. The former Lutheran placed the Springfield school on the gridiron map three years ago this fall when he played with Wilt E. "Pus" Burger and other greats and near greats. He graduated in a coaching job at London (Ohio) High School, where he was co-coached the job of developing the game as school sport there. Last year Lange cast his lot with West Tech, Cleveland, where he made a good job of as unlikely looking prospects complained of by any school in Ohio.

Muskingum is one of the babies of the Ohio Conference. The United Presbyterianians inaugurated their entrance into big time, by not losing a Conference baseball game last spring, and by an excellent record in tennis. Track was given its initial trial. What the school wants is a good football team this fall and a good basketball team next winter. Lange knows these major sports from the ground up and he has the faculty of imparting this knowledge to green youngsters which should make him a valuable man. Muskingum seems due for an increase in gridiron and court prestige in the Conference with Lange at the helm. Lange succeeds E. C. Henderson.

Bill's football team this fall will face a tough schedule including six conference games. The schedule follows: Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh, September 29; Western Reserve at Cleveland, October 6; Kenyon at Gambier, October 13; Wilmington at New Concord, October 19; Heidelberg at Tiffin October 27; Hiram at New Concord, November 3; Marshall at Huntington, N. Va., November 10; Otterbein at New Concord, November 17; Wittenberg at New Concord, November 24.

XENIA PLAYER WINS FIRST PRIZE IN CO. FAIR QUOT GAMES

Phillip Frame, of this city, crack quail pitcher for the Xenia Quail Club and youngest member of the Club, won first money in the quail contests held in connection with the Montgomery County Fair, Dayton, this week.

Young Frame won all of his 13 games in the competition begun Monday and finished Thursday afternoon, scoring a total of 273 points. He was awarded the first cash prize of $45 for his feat. Frame easily outdistanced his nearest competitor, who scored 246 points. The third money winner scored 245 points and the fourth 244 points. All the other three money winners being Dayton players.

There were 14 entries in the quail contest, four cash prizes of $45, $30, $15 and $10 being offered. In the match play Thursday that decided the contests the Xenia pitcher garnered seven ringers three of them against one player. He is also adept at horseshoe pitching but was prevented from entering that contest because of conflict with the quail contests.

William Smith and J. C. Merritt of the Xenia Club were also entered in the contests. Young Frame is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Watt Frame of West Market Street.

HAGLER IN MONEY AT MARYSVILLE FAIR

Joe Hagler, local race horse driver, was in the money twice with two steppers from his stable at the County Fair races at Marysville Wednesday.

Harry McKinney, won third money in the 2:28 trot, by finishing 9-3-3. The purse was $400. Shadyuma with Hagler drove Halie Cochato, the mare owned by Ray Hagler of this city to a score of 3-3-4-2 in the 2:14 pace, purse $400, and divided third and fourth money with Miss Ellen W., with Goslin up. The best time was 2:14 1-4, made by Emma Gano, with Jump up, who finished 4-1-1-1.

DENISON COACH SEEKS MATERIAL FOR QUARTERBACK

Granville, O., Sept. 6.—With the opening of the college year and the football season approaching, the success of the Denison football eleven will depend to a great extent upon coach Livingston's ability in developing a quarterback, two ends and a tackle.

Graduation took four of the outstanding stars of the 1922 machine and it is no small task which confronts Livingston in training men capable of placing Pete Willis, all Ohio quarterback; Dick Willis, all Ohio tackle and Jefferson and Lyne.

The Willis brothers and Jefferson have been important cogs in the big Red gridiron, while Lyne for the past three years, while Lyne played excellent ball at end in his last year of intercollegiate competition.

With only limited material available for the ends and quarterback, the outlook is none too promising at the present time.

RESERVES MAY PLAY DOUBLE HEADER AT PARK HERE SUNDAY

The Xenia Reserves, shaking off the disaster of the double defeat administered by the Xenia Red Sox a week ago, will play Clarksville at Reserve Park Sunday afternoon.

To defeat the Clarksville gang the Reserves will have to play "better ball" than they exhibited in their last four games. The Reserves management is also making an attempt to bring the Morrow team here and if arrangements are perfected will play a double-header Sunday. Eddie Weaver, who held the Red

Latest Improvements IN FORD CARS

Introduction of a higher radiator, bringing new and improved body lines to all types of Ford Cars, is announced today by the Ford Motor Company.

The changes have just gone into effect and the various types are now in production.

While the larger radiator has been made standard on all types and while it has made possible other betterments in body design, there is no radical departure in construction, but rather a general improvement which has resulted in more graceful lines.

The new radiator sets an inch and a half higher than the former and has an apron at the bottom which joins a similar apron effect of the fender on either side, giving a highly finished appearance to the front of the car. The larger radiator also increases cooling efficiency.

Most conspicuous among the new types is the Ford Coupe which is of an entirely new body design and construction, resulting in a more trim exterior appearance more comfortable seating arrangement and a greater luggage carrying capacity.

From the dash there is a graceful sweep in the cowl to the radiator bringing a pleasing effect to the front. The doors are wide and open forward, making access and exit easy. They are heavily framed for rigidity and strength. The compartment at the rear has been enlarged to afford increased carrying capacity. The gasoline tank is under the seat, with divided cushions to afford easy filling of the tank from the right side, making it unnecessary for the driver to leave his seat. Ventilator in the cowl and a visor over the windshield add much to the attractiveness of the car. A new fender of more sturdy character also is a feature.

Interior fittings are of choice material and the arrangement of the deeply cushioned seat has been effected so that at the rear there is a small recess shelf for carrying parcels. The rear vision window is much larger and oblong in shape. Door windows have been equipped with revolving type window regulators and door locks are provided. Side windows are equipped with the lever type window lifters.

Marked, too, is the improvement in the Four Door Sedan. Highly popular since its introduction a year ago, because of its low, graceful lines, the car now presents even much better lines and a sturdier appearance.

This has been brought about by the installation of an entirely new cowl with a graceful sweep from the dash blending into the larger hood and radiator. The change also affords an increase in leg room for occupants of the front seat.

In the open types, the Touring Car and Runabouts, the cowl has been enlarged and flows in a graceful curve.

The result brings a most pleasing effect to the exterior appearance of both types. The improvement in the Touring Car which came when the one man top and slanting windshield were introduced, is greatly enhanced by the larger radiator, the car appearing lower and more attractive than ever. The effect on the Roadster is likewise most appealing, giving it a more rugged and sturdy appearance.

The new radiator is also extended to the Ford Truck chassis, affording improved appearance and better cooling to delivery service.

These new Ford types and the generally recognized performance ability of the Ford under all motoring conditions, promises to bring a greater demand than ever before as the public becomes more fully acquainted with the higher standards and greater values which have been incorporated. No changes are contemplated in price.

XENIA WILL VOTE ON AMENDMENT TO CITY CHARTER

Xenia citizens will vote on a proposed amendment to the city charter eliminating primary elections for City Commission candidates in case the number of expressed candidates is not greater than twice the number of places to be filled, at the regular election next November.

An ordinance providing that that issue be placed before the people at the November balloting was placed on its first reading at a special meeting of the City Commission Thursday afternoon. Although there will be no vote on the proposed ordinance until the regular meeting next Thursday, it is expected that it will be passed unanimously.

The charter amendment was proposed following the recent primary in which the balloting had no effect on the status of the candidates who had filed, although it cost the city about $1,000 for election purposes. Judge H. L. Smith, president of the commission led a discussion favoring a movement to eliminate useless primaries at the last commission meeting in which all members present showed agreement.

The charter provides that twice as many candidates as there are vacancies may be nominated at the primary. The charter however does not make provision for cases in which the candidates before the primary are within the legal limit without the aid of an elimination election. This was the case at the last primary when the number of candidates who filed was within the limit of twice the vacancies fixed by the charter. The election therefore had no effect on nominating the candidates.

The proposed amendment will eliminate the primary except in cases where the candidates who file exceed by more than twice as many the vacancies to be filled. In that case the primary will be held. In case there are just twice as many candidates as vacancies or less, there will automatically be no primary election.

Commissioners Smith, Hudson, McPherson and Fisher were present at Thursday's meeting.

A CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to assure all our friends who were so kind and helpful during the sickness of our mother, Mrs. Anna Harris, and so thoughtful and sympathetic after her death, that it is not possible for us to say how much their tender courtesies lightened the great burden of our affliction; and to the pastor, Rev. Dr. Hill, to Rev. T. D. Scott whose discourse was so beautiful and tender, to Dean Woodson and President Gregg, for their appreciative remarks and for the touching prayer of the latter, we tender our especial thanks; also to those who sent so many beautiful flowers; nor would we forget the efficient services of Mr. J. C. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Henderson, Wilberforce, Ohio.

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, E. A. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp or 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

LINCOLN DID NOT EXPECT THE RAVENS TO FEED HIM—WHY SHOULD YOU OR I?

Contrary to a general impression, Lincoln was not a poor man when he died. All his life he was industrious and thrifty. For years his savings were necessarily small—but he always saved something. He continually strived to get ahead and to acquire a reasonable financial independence. He was generous. He did an immense amount of hard work for other people for which he never received a cent. But he constantly kept before him the idea that he should, if possible, lay up a substantial sum for a rainy day. When he was elected President, at the age of fifty-one, he had accumulated $25,000, which in those days was a very considerable amount. As Miss Tarbell points out, his whole financial philosophy can be summed up in these words: "A man should work, do his best, lay up something for the future, and help his brother man when he can."

Plain common sense, you say. Yes, but rare, wherever you find it. This thing we call "common sense" is usually a statement of what men should do, not what they actually do. At any rate, it is comforting to know, authoritatively and in detail, just how this man looked at these matters. After all, Lincoln was the highest type of American—distinguished above everything for his ideals. Yet there is the bread-and-butter side of life, and it is interesting to have the particulars of how this great and wise man viewed things from that point of view.

If anybody in the United States had a right to imagine that the world owed him a living, Lincoln did. For years he did nothing but give, give, give to his country.

But that did not disturb Lincoln's equilibrium. He realized perfectly that so far as his personal independence and obligations were concerned, he must attend to them if they were to be attended to. If everybody had as good a sense of responsibility for himself as Lincoln had there would not be the necessity of doing so much for the country!

Most of the folks we know are either too excited about accumulating a ridiculous amount of money, or they are not careful to save any. Lincoln was a rare man in this respect, just as he was in most other respects. He had what is foolishly called—plain "horse sense."

THE FARMER NOT "BROKE."

The value of all crops in 1923 in the United States will be a billion dollars more than in 1922. With one of the biggest corn crops in history corn is selling at 86 cents as compared with 62.2 cents a year ago. Oats are five cents a bushel higher than they were a year ago; there has been the same increase in the price of barley. One seventh of the value of all farm products is in dairy products, and these are about twenty per cent higher in return to the producer than they were a year ago. Yet because the price of one farm product is so low as to be unprofitable today the air is filled with outcry about the bankruptcy of the farmer. The farmer has suffered from deflation. He is bearing part of the burden of higher labor costs. He is a long way from being "broke," however, and his condition is improving; improving so fast that it is up to the calamity howlers to make hay while the sun doesn't shine.

OUR PROSPERITY.

Gradually the people of this country are more clearly comprehending the tremendous achievements of the Harding administration in the field of economic reconstruction. Millions of men, unemployed when President Harding was inaugurated, now working at profitable wages, is the best answer to those who seek to discredit the Republican record. President Harding was another advance agent of prosperity. It is unfortunate that he could not live to witness the full fruition of his labors, but the American people will continue to enjoy the heritage so long as they stand by the policies which made the return of "good times" to the nation possible.

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

A system of hot water heating is being put in at the county Jail. Workmen, engaged in cutting through the floor of the jail came across an odd find in the way of some bent and twisted iron rods, recalling the story of an escape of a man named Johns from the County Jail some years ago. Johns used the rods procured from a trainway along the upper cells, to pry up one of the heavy flagstones on the floor. Since then the stones have been covered by four inches of cement.

O. S. and S. C. Home Weekly Governor Nash declined last week to approve plans for the new armory on the grounds that he did not believe they could be carried out within the limits of the appropriation. Mr. Fred C. Kelly, who has been forgetting the eternal skirmish for news the past week and has been enjoying a life of luxury and ease over in the Hoosier state has returned home after this round of gaiety. Fred has again settled down to business.

Tomorrow—Putting Up The Favorite Pieces

Thousands of Letters

LITERALLY thousands of letters recommending the use of S. S. S.—the great blood purifier and system builder—all telling how S. S. S. restores the state of well being by creating red blood cells are received daily by the manufacturers of S. S. S.

What S. S. S. has done for others it will do for you. Is your vitality sapped—your courage gone—your health undermined—your brain misty—the old time fighting spirit missing? Do you want to get back to the days of "once before"—the days when you were young and strong—healthy and buoyant—when your brain was active and your spirit alive with ambition?

S. S. S. is the surest and safest way to restore health, energy and vitality. Since 1826, S. S. S. has been bringing back clear, sparkling eyes—radiant expressions of well-being—building up nerve power—sending red blood coursing through the system—building red blood cells. Your nerve power is born in the blood cell. Increase your red blood cells and watch yourself improve.

S. S. S. makes stronger and healthier bodies—bodies free from impurities—free from rheumatism—free from skin eruptions—eczema, blackheads, pimples and boils. Any leading drug store will supply you and, for economy, get a large size bottle.

EVERYTHING TO WIN

Unfortunate as it may seem to you to have lost all—as you often feel that you have—you are really at that time more fortunate than ever. For then it is that you have everything to win!

You cannot win all the time. Neither can you lose all the time. The greatest thought that can come to you is that you have everything to win. Have you never thought of it in this light?

Henry Ford was a poor man at 40. At 60 he is the richest man in the world. And he is rich in much more than mere money. You see he had everything to win—and so he went ahead with faith in himself to win.

You are apt to say, because you are discouraged today, that this day went count and that you will try and forget it. But remember this, if you have failed today, you have all the rest of your days in which to win.

So I would say: Go to sleep tonight with the dream of winning and of happiness in your heart. And then tomorrow will take care of itself, and of you.

Life must be kept ahead of us.

FORMER MATRON SERIOUSLY ILL

Columbus, Sept. 5.—John McNamara, assistant welfare director, left for Deer Park, Md., to bring back Mrs. McNamara, former matron of the Girls' Industrial Home, who has been there for the past two weeks. Mrs. McNamara went to the resort with a hope of her failing health being improved, but a message from there was to the effect that her physical condition was no better and that the attending physician had recommended her immediate return to her home.

STRAW REFERENDUM PROPOSED

Cleveland, Sept. 5.—Efforts to secure votes for a straw referendum on modification of the Volstead act to permit the use of light wine and beer are under way in Cleveland. Representatives of the National Liberal Alliance, Washington, are preparing to place ballot boxes in theaters, stores and on street corners.

Too many people keep "beating the air." And remember this: The greatest thing you can give to the one you love or to the world, is the richest of yourself. For when we feel that we have truly given to someone else, we feel that we have fulfilled the most divine purpose within us. There really isn't time for regrets.

That which is ahead of you is what counts most. Let this be the thought that spurs you on: There is everything to win!

Beaver Creek school opened on Tuesday morning with full attendance. In the high school the largest attendance in the history of the school is reported. The registration numbers ninety-four with several pupils yet to enter. It is confidently expected that the one hundred mark will be reached.

The following teachers are in charge of the high school: Letitia Dillencourt, principal, Latin and English; Florence Smith, History and Social Science; Katherine Warner, Domestic Science and English; Earl Collins, Science and Mathematics; A. V. Kessel, Smith-Hughes Agriculture; Walter R. Sayers, vocal music and orchestra.

Miss Smith will have charge of the girls' athletics and physical training and Mr. Collins will have charge of the boys.

The Beaver Creek grades will be taught by the following teachers:

No. 1, Concord, Osee Burke; No. 2, Brown, Charlotte Louis; No. 3, Alec, Louis Elam; No. 4, Benham, Carrie Louis; No. 5, Cantz, Lillie McCoy; No. 6, Trebeins, Frank Duncan; No. 7, Beaver, Frances Thompson; No. 8, Ludlow, Alveta Netherthorn; No. 9, Rural Home, Dorothy Walton; No. 10, Sunny Side, Ollis Hart; No. 11, New Liberty, Frank Zink; No. 12, Zimmerman, Primary, Gladys Greer; Advanced, Mrs. Oris Jones; No. 13, Alpha, Miss Eleanor Rakestraw.

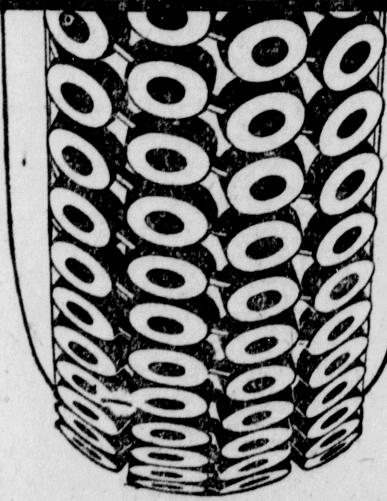

It is an interesting fact that the grade teachers, with a few exceptions and one of the high school teachers are graduates of Beaver Creek High School. This is a fine commentary on community loyalty.

INTEREST ATTACHES LOCALLY TO MEETING NATIONAL W. C. T. U.

Much interest is being felt in Greene county in the annual convention of The National Women's Christian Temperance Union opened Friday in Columbus. The convention will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the Women's Temperance Crusade, in which many Greene County and Xenia women, pioneers in the temperance movement, participated.

The Ohio State convention of the W. C. T. U. was held in Columbus September 6, the day prior to the opening of the national convention. Temperance women held their first official meeting prior to the convention, September 4 when the national executive board went into session. The state executive board held its annual session September 5.

Miss Mary B. Ervin of this city, world and national secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion is a member of the national executive board by virtue of her office. She is the only Ohio woman holding office on the national board. The following Greene County women are members of the state executive board: Mrs. Carrie L. Flatter, president of The Greene County W. C. T. U.; Mrs. W. O. Ostis, Mrs. M. E. Snodgrass, Mrs. Walter L. Dean and Miss Mary Ervin.

While the state convention is in session, the delegates to the national convention held a prayer service for the welfare of the state convention at the Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church.

The conventions will open each day with departmental conferences from 9:30 to 11:30. The opening session of the national convention and the president's address was held Friday morning. In the afternoon national officers and branch secretaries gave reports of 1923 activities. In the evening there will be a get-together dinner.

The principal features of Saturday will be the street pageant, "March of Allegiance" in which 5,000 persons are expected to take part. Mrs. Mary Harris Armour of Georgia, will address a mass meeting Sunday afternoon. Convention business will occupy the daytime sessions. A number of distinguished speakers will appear on the evening programs of September 2, 10, 11 and 12. Including Senator S. D. Fess Representative Cooper and Governor Donnelly of Ohio; Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general; Roy B. Haynes, Federal Prohibition Director; Grace Abbott, chief U. S. Children's Bureau; and Ernest H. Cherrington, general secretary of the World League Against Alcoholism. It is expected that Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania will be the chief speaker for Sunday evening. In addition notable women of the W. C. T. U. will be heard.

TO CONSERVE TIME OF TEACHING HERE

Increased enrollment at Central High School expected this year will necessitate conservation of the teaching time as much as possible, according to C. A. Waltz, school superintendent.

The teaching staff has not been increased numerically for the regular academic work, in spite of the anticipated greater enrollment, it is said. Fewer teachers will be available for academic work on the other hand because of the new requirement for physical education, which necessitates full time of one teacher in that department.

Classes will all be full and consequently students will be limited to the four regular subjects and will not be permitted to take five subjects in those cases where an extra credit is needed to graduate with the class, Mr. Waltz has announced.

WARD MUST STAND TRIAL ON CHARGE

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Walter Ward, son of the millionaire baker, George Ward, will have to stand trial Sept. 21 on the charge of murdering Clarence S. Peters, ex-marine, on May 16, 1922. Judge Wagner refused to dismiss the indictment and also to grant bail to Ward. Judge Wagner held that while some illegal evidence had been presented to the grand jury which returned the indictment, he was persuaded that the jury had not been influenced by it and that sufficient prima facie evidence had been submitted to support the indictment and to take the case before a jury. The justice held that there was no "exceptional circumstance" to justify the granting of bail to a man charged with homicide.

ATTEND TRIALS

Sheriff Morris Sharp, Deputy John Baughn and Prosecutor J. K. Williamson went to Dayton Thursday to attend the trials of Bert Blair, Xenia, and Bert Coons, of east of Xenia, scheduled for Thursday before U. S. Commissioner Carl Lenz on charges of conspiracy to violate the federal prohibition laws.

Coons was arrested here several months ago on a charge of manufacturing liquor and is said to have implicated Blair as the leader in an alleged liquor ring in the county. Blair's arrest by Deputy U. S. Marshal Carson Pratt followed.

W. C. T. U. HONOR CRUSADERS OF OTHER DAYS IN NATIONAL CONVENTION AT COLUMBUS, OHIO

CRUSADERS of early temperance days are being honored throughout the sessions of the Crusade Anniversary Convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union which began in Memorial Hall, Columbus, O., on Sept. 4, and continues until Sept. 14.

Several thousand women will take part in a March of Allegiance, a spectacular street parade, in which all the delegates will join together with leading women from all the other women's organizations in Columbus, Saturday afternoon, September 8. Floats showing the work of the twenty-six departments of W. C. T. U. work and the progress of the organization since 1874, will be a feature of this parade.

Mrs. John Gordon Battelle, appointed a member of the National Republican Committee by the late President, Warren G. Harding, headed a Committee of 5,000 Columbus women, who welcomed the W. C. T. U. delegates from all over the United States.

Distinguished speakers, addressing various sessions of the convention, are: Gov. Donahay, Miss Grace Abbott, Senator Fess, Representative Cooper, Mrs. Mabel Walker Wille-

brandt and Dr. Mary Harris Armour, "the Georgia Cyclone". State presidents on the program include Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith, Iowa; Mrs. Lillian M. Mitchell, Kansas; Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, California; Mrs. Nelle G. Burger, Missouri, and Mrs. Florence Richard, Ohio.

Miss Anna A. Gordon, world and national president of the W. C. T. U. in her address stressed the influence of women in bringing about the prohibition amendment and the outlook for the 1924 election.

BEAUTY CONTEST IN EAST PROGRESSES

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 7.—White flannel knickers, a dimpling smile, a mass of chestnut brown hair and a roller chair of white cloth and red roses, won the first of the "national beauty titles" for Miss Charlotte Nash, St. Louis entrant, in the beauty pageant here. The prize was for the "best general appearance," and the crowd along the board walk was all for Miss St. Louis. Other prizes in this class were won by Miss Elizabeth Mallory of Memphis, Miss Marian Green of Philadelphia, Miss Isabel Lynch of Pottsville and Miss Ethelda Kenvin of Brooklyn. The pageant opened with hundreds of floats in line, and at the head rode the 73 intercity beauties, from whom will be picked "America's most beautiful." Airplanes roared overhead and thousands of spectators lined the boardwalk.

MR. W. H. BUSH, COLUMBUS, O.

"I had pains on my stomach after every meal, although I was very careful what I ate," says Mr. W. H. Bush, a well-known carpenter, of 534 East Cherry street, Columbus.

"Sometimes the pain would catch me around my heart and I could hardly get my breath. It takes all the joy out of life when you cannot eat without suffering for it afterwards and I have missed many a meal when I was hungry as I knew the misery it would cause me. I was as nervous as could be and could not sleep well at all."

"I have been taking Ka-di-ok on and off for some months, and it always seems to hit the spot and never fails to relieve me whenever I have a bad attack of stomach trouble. I can eat hearty and any sort of rich food and there is no comeback or indigestion. I have been able to sleep well and feel in good condition. Ka-di-ok is a wonderful medicine and I gladly recommend it to all my friends who don't feel right."

Ka-di-ok can be had in Xenia at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store. adv

BOYS INITIATED INTO K. K. K. ORDER

Although rain threatened to force postponement of the initiation of the Greene County K. K. K. Junior Order, clearing skies greeted an estimated crowd of several thousand people on the Siefert farm south of Xenia, Thursday evening, when it is reported that 540 boys from Greene County were initiated into the Junior Order.

A stage had been erected in one end of the field and was lighted by electricity, while the field was surrounded by robed figures, who guarded the enclosure.

At the explosion of a bomb, headed by the band, the young men, each holding a red light started their march toward the stage where the obligation and instructions were received.

After the ritualistic work, state and national organizers delivered talks declaring "the organization stands for the tenants of the Christian religion, protection of womanhood, elimination of mob violence and strikes by foreign agitators, law and order and co-operation with local authorities in suppressing law violations."

Announcement was made that

AWAITS WORD OF NIECE IN JAPAN

Mrs. C. E. Anderson, of East Market Street, is anxiously waiting for news from the family of her niece, Mrs. Houston Buchanan, of Sterling, Kan., whose home is in Tokio, Japan.

Mrs. Anderson's family may have perished in the catastrophe which has devastated a section of Japan.

Prof. Buchanan is an instructor in the American College in Tokio and the family have made their home there for several years. The family usually spends the summers in the mountains and relatives here are hoping that they may have been out of the city when the destruction came.

Mrs. Buchanan has a number of relatives in this county.

STRIKE TALK HEARD IN GERMANY

Berlin, Sept. 7.—The American dollar is officially worth 3,200,000 marks, but buys 4,000,000 marks in private dealings. It is understood that the reichstag report will show a further trebling of the floating debt in the last 10 days of August, bringing the total to 1,000,000,000,000 marks. The new collapse of the mark and the madly increasing prices disarrange all wage agreements, and strike talk is beginning to be heard.

TWO MEN FOUND DEAD.

Mansfield, O., Sept. 6.—Two farmers, Cashel Adams, 77, and Christian Kinsey, 71, were found dead on their farms. Heart trouble is given as the cause in each instance. Mr. Adams started to a field where his nephew, Delos Adams, was plowing. He was found lying in the field dead. Mr. Kinsey died on top of a straw stack.

PAUSE AND REFLECT

More than a hundred years have passed since Benjamin Franklin penned this warning. Yet, what a good motto it is today.

There are still with us those who would have us forget that value received and price paid must always balance. In the long run, however, people don't forget. We are building for the future. Conservatism, careful judgment and careful statement were valued yesterday, are valued today and will be valued tomorrow.

A New and Better Way to Can

you can put up all fruits and vegetables without standing over a scorching stove—without suffering discomforts of any kind.

With the Lorain Oven Method fruits and vegetables are cooked in Mason jars—in the oven, keeping their color, firmness and fresh-from-the-garden taste far better than when canned any other way.

Ask us for a free copy of the beautifully illustrated booklet, "Lorain Oven Canning." Let us demonstrate "Oven Canning," "Whole Meal Cooking" and "How to Bake and Cook Without Ever a Failure"—all in the oven of a Lorain-equipped Gas Range.

QUICK MEAL Gas Ranges

Equipped with the Lorain Oven Heat Regulator. Noted for their simple, durable construction and perfect baking qualities. Sheet metal parts made of rust-resisting Ingot iron. Castings are smooth. No bolt strain on enameled parts. Oven linings are zinc coated, easy to remove and clean. Many sizes and styles.

Wives Want Divorces

Wives are the plaintiffs in two divorce cases filed in Common Pleas Court. Velma M. Fite, Osborn, R. H. 3, wants divorce from Roy C. Fite, whom she married at Lebanon, July 5, 1919. She charges gross neglect and extreme cruelty and that her husband deserted her September 21, 1921. Bessie Roberts wants divorce from Frank Roberts on the ground of willful absence for three years and she also seeks restoration to her maiden name. They were married June 4, 1915.

Case is Dismissed

The case of William S. Rogers, as administrator against Ella V. Mason, and others, has been dismissed without record from Common Pleas Court.

Administrator Named

Nora Canny has been appointed administrator of the estate of A. J. Canny, late of Xenia, in Probate Court and has furnished $1500 bond. James Canaday, J. J. Stout and Theodore Johnson were named appraisers.

Estates Not Subject to Tax

Two estates have been found exempt from inheritance tax in Probate Court. The estate of May Wilson amounted to $6,400, gross and the debts and costs of administration $2,915 leaving a net value of $3,485 which passes to Harry C. Wilson, widower, whose exemption is $3500. The gross value of the estate of Geo. T. Stiles was $1,914.08 and the debts and costs of administration $1,101.06 leaving $813.02 for distribution to A. T. Stiles, Thorntown Newcomer, Arthur Dale Stiles and Clara Ethel Chinn, the exemption of each being greater than the amount of succession.

WANTS NO STATE CASES

Columbus, Sept. 7.—Municipal Judge Seidel from the bench took occasion to assail the state prohibition department. He said: "I don't care to entertain any cases of the state department after they have broken into print with their criticism; they are dirty rats. I have not found the right spirit among the state liquor law enforcement officers. I'll hear their cases, but I would rather they took them to the justice of the peace—those high-browed jurists of the county."

TWO INDICTED

Troy Sept. 6.—Secret indictments on charges of extortion were returned against the Rev. S. A. Blessing, West Milton, prohibition officer and Mayor J. Karns of West Milton by the Grand Jury that reported yesterday.

Each was indicted on four counts. The charges are said to be based on too zealous application of the state laws and excessive fines and resulted in an indignation meeting in Piqua recently when a protest against the operations of Blessing and Karns was sent to Governor Dorahey.

SET-BACK GIVEN FILIPINOS WHO TRY NEW PLAN

Manila, Sept. 5.—Filipino politicians who tried to utilize the recent trip of the Filipino athletes to Japan in connection with the Far Eastern Olympiad for independence propaganda purposes, received a severe set-back at the hands of the Japanese press, according to reports just reaching Manila.

A considerable number of members of the Philippine legislature accompanied the athletes, styling themselves the "Philippine Parliamentary Delegation." Their leader, Senator Francisco Enage, issued a statement in Tokyo saying, among other things:

"It is hoped that Japan will not be indifferent to the national aspiration of the Filipino people to become a free and independent nation, doing everything that she can along diplomatic lines for the realization of Philippine independence and, when this is secured, for its preservation. The Philippines, as an independent country, could co-operate better and more efficiently with Japan in the affairs of the Orient than as a dependent country, which she actually is."

Only one paper in Japan, the Osaka Mancho, having the largest circulation, took up the overtone, but not in a manner anticipated by the "diplomats." It said:

"It must be observed that the generous attitude of the United States of America toward the national aspiration of the Filipino people has emboldened the 'Parliamentary Delegation' to issue this statement while it is staying in this country as our guests of honor. America often expressed her willingness to give independence to the Philippines and any action on the part of third party countries concerning this problem 'along diplomatic lines' will not conflict with the interests of America. It is generally understood that the realization of Philippine independence, is after all, a question of time, and there is no doubt that the American nation itself views this problem in the same light. Our Filipino friends should be congratulated upon the magnanimous attitude of the American nation toward their legitimate aspirations for national independence."

"KING OF JAZZ" TO FURNISH PROGRAM

Handy's Original Band, with W. C. Handy, "King of Jazz," himself and Sarah Martin, "World's Greatest Blues Singer," whose voice is popular on hundreds of phonograph records, will furnish a feast for lovers of syncope at City Hall Theater Monday, September 10, through arrangements with the Standard Amusement Company of this city.

Handy is better known through his "blues" numbers. He sprang into prominence with "Memphis Blues" and followed it with "St. Louis Blues." Later came "Beale St. Blues," dedicated to his home street in Memphis, "Harlem Blues," "John Henry Blues," "Yellow Dog Blues," "Loveless Love," "Sundown Blues," "Darktown Revue," "Hesitating Blues," "Jogo Blues" and his latest hit, "Aunt Hagar Blues."

Miss Martin made her first hit on Okeh records with "Sugar Blues," and she has made records since for 14 companies, her most popular numbers including "Michigan Water Blues," "Laughin' Cryin' Blues," "Come Home Papa," "Mama's Got the Blues" and others. The program is booked as the Handy-Martin Concert and will furnish syncope melody in all its variations.

O. V. I. REUNION TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

The pall bearers were her uncles, Mr. William Ross, Mr. James Hardy, Mr. James Wright, Mr. William Calhoun, Mr. Clarence Cook and Mr. Perry Fletcher.

The Girl Scouts attended in uniform as honorary escort. Burial was in the family lot in Woodland.

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

CHAPTER XXI

Although annoyed that Paul would tell me nothing concerning his position with the Motor Company, I was really happier than I had been in a long time. Just knowing he had work, was at least earning something in a business that might be permanent, gave me such satisfaction as I had not known for years.

Quite regularly he gave me money for my own and the children's needs, not much to be sure, but enough so that by careful planning I was able to get along. All other bills he attended to. Rather he told me he did, and as we ceased to be dunned I had no reason to doubt him.

With this surcease from worry I became younger, both in spirit and in looks. Not only my mirror, but my friends told me so. I took more pains with appearance, my clothes, as constant worry, and almost unconsciously I had allowed myself to become indifferent. Paul noticed, remarked upon my improved appearance. I said:

"I look better, Paul, because I'm not worried all the time. You have a position, are learning a business, why shouldn't I look and feel better?"

"A woman—you, had no right to let yourself grow careless. Once a woman is a frump all her charm is gone. See that you don't let down again. You're getting on, can't afford to neglect yourself."

"I am getting aged, almost 27," I replied, laughing, Paul's remarks about women always amused me.

Several weeks had passed since Dave Logan dined with us. I had almost forgotten he had said he would come again, when Paul telephoned he was bringing him down to dinner and added:

I promised, feeling a bit hurt that he had not said get someone to help me with the preparation of dinner. It was not of me, to help me, he wanted a waitress, but to impress Dave Logan. Nevertheless I engaged the girl, then spent the rest of the day in the kitchen, determined to have the very nicest dinner I knew how to prepare. Logan had been a good friend to us, had given me a few weeks of happiness, of departure from anxiety over money matters.

It was a warm day, and I was

through dinner so making me feel at ease with him. "You seem like a young girl tonight."

"I'm anything but that," I replied flushing under his gaze. "I'm an old married woman with two big children."

"No one would believe it to see you tonight," he said. Then Paul, who was always uneasy unless he were included in the conversation, broke in and changed the subject by speaking of the latest war news in the papers, declaring America would surely be dragged into it.

"You will be exempt anyway. Norwood," Logan remarked. "You're too old to be drafted, and have a wife and children."

It seemed almost ridiculous that they should talk as if we were going into the war. As yet, such a contingency had scarcely been suggested.

Tomorrow—Paul Resigns From The Motor Company.

For skin blemishes use Resinol

Don't be annoyed and embarrassed any longer by an ugly, blotchy skin. Apply a little Resinol Ointment and use Resinol Soap for your toilet, then note how much better your skin looks and feels. Resinol Shaving Stick soothes tender skins. These three products at all drug stores.

PESKY BED-BUGS

(Pesky Devils Quietus) P.D.Q. is the new chemical that puts the everlasting to the Pesky bedbugs, moths and roaches—impossible for the pesky devils to exist where P.D.Q. is used.

Recommendations for Hotels, Hospitals, Railroad Companies and other public institutions are a guarantee to the public that the safest, quickest and most economical way of ridding the pesky insects is by the use of P.D.Q., as this chemical kills the eggs as well as the live ones, and will not injure the clothing.

A 35c package makes a full quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, moths and roaches—and also contains a patent sprayer to get the eggs nests in the hard-to-reach places and saves juice. P.D.Q. can also be purchased in sealed bottles double strength, liquid form.

SHOWDOWN IN HARD COAL ISSUE COMES AS PINCHOT MEETS MINERS

Checkoff Question in

OPERATORS ACCEPT
Workers Now Blocking Road to Settlement of Controversy

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 7.—The hard
showdown comes today. This
noon Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania will meet the anthracite operators and miners in joint conference to determine whether the nation
will witness another long and disastrous coal strike or whether the 155,
000 miners are to return to their collieries.

The conference will "make or break" on the checkoff issue. Full representation of the union as differently
interpreted by the two sides, again
became the dominating factor.

the headquarters.

Under stress the operators have
accepted without qualification the
"points of settlement as offered by Pinchot, a settlement of
which to quote an operator spokes-
tion's domestic coal bill, or a minimum increase of 80 cents a ton to the
public."

The miners are blocking the road.
They accept two of the four points,
but continue to hold out for a dollar and cents' increase for day men,
the low priced men of the industry—
and for the checkoff.

It was learned authoritatively, how-
crease for the day men, accepting the
flat ten per cent for the entire indus-
try—if they are given the closed shop.

The closed shop has become more
than an issue of the anthracite strike.
It was pointed out today. Facing the
almost certain prospect of a walkout
John L. Lewis, international president
of the United Mine Workers of
be prepared for that crisis with 100
per cent union organization with all
of its influence and funds. Only
through the checkoff or some other
form of "complete union recognition"
can he be sure of such a weapon.

would break on the checkoff direct.
Rather, Lewis is prepared to use
the day men's increase as a smoke
screen behind which he can wage a finish fight for the coveted prize of recognition. If the operators would
agree "to hire nobody but union
abandon the checkoff demand—would even give up the increased wage for
day men.

The operators' answer is an unqual-
ified statement they will never agree
to either the checkoff or any other
plan by which they would be denied
the right to employ any men they
may desire.

In the operators' camp today it was
learned that the ten percent wage increase was accepted only because
Governor Pinchot had forced the operators in a position where they
would either have to pay the figure
he named or face public opposition in
the inevitable continuance of the strike. The operators, however, have
not receded from their original position that a wage increase is unjusti-
fied.

The public, it was made clear
least on every ton of coal. Speaking
of the ten per cent increase, it was
stated at operator headquarters:

"It is the worst possible thing both
for the industry and for the American
public. It is uneconomic and it will
add $32,500,000 to the nation's domestic coal bill each year."

Upon Governor Pinchot, it was said
will fall the duty of making this clear
to the domestic consumer, should a
settlement be reached and justifying
it as best as he can.

the union subcommittee of four by
scheduled for one o'clock following
this paper's delegation will present
its final answer to Governor Pinchot
and the operators at three o'clock.

FIREMAN SLAIN

Norwalk, O., Sept. 7.—The body of a man, about 35 years of age, believed to be F. W. Wiley, a railroad fireman, was found at the side of the New York Central tracks here. A bullet had pierced his head. A pass made out to F. W. Wiley and a photograph of the dead man was found on the body.

Italy and Greece Agree To Settlement Made By Council; War Averted

Paris, Sept. 7.—It was learned
from an authoritative source this
afternoon that the Interallied Council
of Ambassadors has succeeded in
drawing up a settlement which is
acceptable to both Italy and Greece,
averting war in southern Europe.

The details will be communicated
to the League of Nations at Geneva.
Italy has been contending all along

question for the ambassadors of the League of Nations because the
powers have not recognized the
present Athens government.

It is understood that the assassination of General Tellini, Italian
chief of the Allied Commission, for
the delimitation of the Albanian boundary commission will be investigated by a committee and that Greece has promised concessions acceptable to Premier Mussolini.

Evidence that the tension has less-
ened, was revealed by Premier Poincare's arrangements to leave tonight

AMERICA RUSHES JAPAN SUPPLIES; FUNDS DONATED

Washington, Sept. 7.—America is
opening its purse in the same generous manner that its heart went out
in sympathy to the stricken people
of Japan.

American Red Cross at a rate which
insures a vast oversubscription of the $5,000,000 for which the original appel was issued.

Official announcement was made
that the $5,000,000 fund is the minimum that will be needed from this
limit set for reaching this goal.

The immediate response of the American people has made it possible to start the work of succor with-
out waiting for the entire amount
sought. The machinery of the purchasing and shipping department of the American Relief association, taken over by the Red Cross, is working
at top speed. The purchase of supplies is under way on a large scale
and shipments are starting at once.

Japan is taking definite shape as hundreds of vessels are speeding toward
the island empire loaded with medical supplies and provisions of all kinds.

American Ambassador Wood at Tokio cabled the American state department at Washington that food, clothing and material to construct temporary dwellings are needed badly in
the devastated zone. The ambassador estimated that more than 1,000,
000 persons are homeless in the Tokio
area alone.

Twelve American destroyers are
anchored off Yokohama, aiding in relief work. The large naval transport
supplies at Manila. Another Ameri-
Cebu, China. A Philippine Red
transport Merritt with equipment and
personnel for three complete hospi-
Columbia, Pacific and West
O'Rowa are en route to Yokohama
from Kobe loaded with supplies furnished by the residents of Kobe.

Hongkong reports that the freighter
Grace Dollar is there loading with relief supplies for Japan. It will require six days to reach a Japanese
port.

The United States shipping board
is doing everything in its power to
aid in furnishing vessels to carry
food, medicines and materials to the
earthquake sufferers.

Lorna Ambler, beautiful Australian actress, named by Ger-
ardine Farrar as one of the co-
respondents in her sensational
New York divorce from Lou Tellegen, announced that she
was to marry Tellegen on September 27, when Miss Farrar's

interlocutory decree became
final. Tellegen rose up to say
"twasnt so," whereupon Miss
Ambler said they were engaged,
but she had been jilted by the
actor.

in Yokohama sank three feet almost
broke, wrecking almost every build-
ing. There was no chance of rescuing the inhabitants. Fires broke out
simultaneously in a hundred places.

The destruction of Yokosuka is complete. The earthquake smashed
side above the naval station releas-
through and demolished the town, and
a river of flame from which there was no escape for thousands. The burning oil spread over the harbor
causing terror and panic.

It is reported that cholera has
broken out in Yokohama, where the
people were forced to drink muddy
water from the ditches and eat foul food to avoid starvation. The spread of pestilence is complicating the work
of relief.

Cincinnati, Sept. 7.—Authorities are
investigating the finding of two skele-
tons at the edge of Mariemont, the
model town being built by Mrs. Emery, southeast of Madisonville. The
skeletons were those of a man and
woman, and were found by workmen
who were digging a trench for the installation of the water system for the
new town.

Emperor expresses gratitude

Shanghai, Sept. 7.—Tokio reports
reaching Shanghai indicate that the Emperor Yoshihito of Japan has sent
the following message of gratitude to President Coolidge of the United States: "Deeply touched by your pro-
found sympathy and kindest offer in
our appalling calamity. I beg you to accept my heartfelt gratitude to you
and the American people."

Akron, O., Sept. 7.—Lloyd D. Carter, director of safety for Akron, denied the charge of State Prohibitions
Inspector McDonald that Akron officials were not enforcing the prohibition laws. He said that if his reputed charges to Governor Donahey concerning Akron were actually made,
the dry inspector is guilty of an "unqualified lie."

Clue is found.

Middletown, Sept. 7.—Police today
found a Jordan car, used, it is believed by a trio of bandits who late
last night held up the east end
branch of the Johnson Drug Company.

Beautiful Cities of Tokio and Yokohama Are Blackened
Invasion During War.

Kobe, Japan, Sept. 6.—(Delayed)
—A report has reached here today
that, because of the scarcity of food
and water in Yokohama, an epidemic
of cholera and dysentery has broken
out.

BY DUKE N. PARRY, I. N. S.
Kobe, Japan, Sept. 7.—Half a million persons lost their lives in the Japanese disaster.

Refugees arriving here from Yokohama and Tokio today stated that
unquestionably the total death toll
will reach this great figure.

The number of dead in Tokio
alone will total 25,000. Property
damage is incalculable.

No persons are being admitted to Tokio who have not sufficient food
rations for themselves.

The great Japanese naval base at Yokosuka was practically destroyed
by munitions explosions. The Koishi-yama arsenal also was ruined by explosions.

The destruction of these two naval
bases is the greatest loss to Japan's
national defense.

Warships which were in the harbor
at Yokosuka were badly damaged.
Several members of the imperial
family here were killed. They include Kaicho, who was smothered to death
in the collapse of a train at Yokosuka,
Prince Kanin's daughter the second
son of Prince Higashikuni and Prince Takashige were killed at Shimizu.

Temporary transportation service is
being arranged between Yokohama and Shimizu.

Emperor Yoshito contributed 10, 000,000 yen for immediate relief of
the stricken in the capital city.

The beautiful cities of Tokio and Yokohama are today a blackened

VERSAILLES TREATY
RAPPED BY WOOD
AS CAUSING WAR

Washington, Sept. 7.—"Anyone who
goes to Europe, sees conditions as
they exist there and comes back advocating that we have anything to do
his hat," Representative Wood, Republican of Indiana, declared at the
white house just after he had called
on President Coolidge. Wood added:

"There is only one way in which
the United States should take a hand
over there, and that is to serve notion on France that she must pay the
some arrangement to fund it as Great Britain did."

"I don't think France believes it
was ever intended that she should
pay this debt. While in France I was told that when the Versailles treaty
was being negotiated, Premier Clem-
enceau asked President Wilson what
the attitude of the United States
would be in regard to this debt, and
that Wilson replied that its repayment
would depend on the action of the
league of nations."

"There can never be any peace in Europe until steps are taken to undo
the Versailles treaty. No nation over
there has any respect for it. They
are all carrying on in a way that is
a virtual declaration for more war,
and more war is inevitable as long
as that treaty stands."

"The present attitude of Italy is
an illustration of this. An outbreak involving the whole of Europe can be looked for at any time. I would not be surprised to see a revolution in Germany within the next three
months, as soon as the German people begin to feel the pinch of winter
cold and hunger."

ed everywhere one goes in Europe.
The whole continent is alarmed over
the large military establishment she
is building up."

"France today has an army of 950,
000. She is maintaining 400,000 soldiers in Poland. The Turkish and Rumanian armies are offered by Frenchmen. Recently France floated
a big loan for Belgium. The rest of Europe is trembling in fear of this
enormous military power under French domination."

Over 2,000,000 homeless are in a
pitiable condition throughout the devastated zone. Shelter, provisions and
drinking water are very scarce and
terrible suffering is reported.

Fate of the great Japanese naval
base at Yokosuka is unknown to
the home office officials. Reports
have been persistent for the last few
days that this monster station was
totally destroyed.

More than seventy foreign dead
have been identified at the time of
this writing. Most of them perished
in Yokohama. Among them are in-

Many Xenia athletes will be represented on the athletic teams of the Cincinnati Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad taking part in the annual elimination contests at Logansport, Indiana, Saturday, to select representatives of the western region to meet eastern champions at Altoona, Pa., in the annual field and athletic event of the Pennsylvania Railroad, September 22.

Each of the divisions of the Pennsylvania Lines west of Pittsburgh will be represented in the elimination matches at Logansport by teams from practically every kind of sport, including mostly field events, running, swimming, rifle shooting, clay bird shooting, horseshoe pitching, quirt pitching, golf, tennis and other branches of sport endeavor.

The Cincinnati Division rifle team, composed mostly Xenia marksmen, won the right to represent the western region at the national events last year, but lost to a crack eastern team. This time the Cincinnati Division team is entering the elimination lists not only with the determination of winning the western region championship but also to take the championship of the entire system at the national meet later.

The rifle team is composed of ten marksmen, eight of who are from Xenia. The team members are J. C. Denham, W. C. Jones, D. E. Martin, B. E. Vickers, J. G. McNeil, E. F. Mays, J. A. Simison, Roy Jones, all of Xenia and Cundiff and Pemberton of Cincinnati. Five members of the team that will represent the division in the trap shooting elimination tournament are from Xenia. They are Ted Murray, Os Swigart, C. J. Kussmaul, Ray Eagle and Wilbur Panake. The Ervin brothers of Selma, Brown of South Charleston and Smith and Dummit of Morrow are also members.

Cleveland, where he made a good job of as a coach. He graduated in a coaching job at London (Ohio) High School, where he was coached by the job of developing the game as a school sport.

Muskingum is one of the babies of the Ohio Conference. The United Presbyterians inaugurated their entrance into big time, by not losing. Conference baseball game last spring, and by an excellent record in tennis. Track was given its initial trial. What the school wants is a good football team this fall and a good basketball team next winter. Lange knows these major sports from the ground up and he has the faculty of imparting this knowledge to green youngsters which should make him a valuable man. Muskingum seems due for an increase in gridiron and court prestige in the Conference with Lange at the helm. Lange succeeds E. C. Henderson.

Bill's football team this fall will face a tough schedule including six conference games. The schedule follows: Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh, September 29; Western Reserve at Cleveland, October 6; Kenyon at Gambier, October 13; Wilmington at New Concord, October 19; Heidelberg at Tiffin, October 27; Hiram at New Concord, November 3; Marshall at Huntington, W. Va., November 10; Otterbein at New Concord, November 17; Wittenberg at New Concord, November 24.

Phillip Frame, of this city, crack quirt pitcher for the Xenia Quirt Club and youngest member of the Club, won first money in the quirt contests held in connection with the Montgomery County Fair, Dayton, this week. Young Frame won all of his 13 games in the competition begun Monday and finished Thursday afternoon, scoring a total of 273 points. He was awarded the first cash prize of $45 for his feat. Frame easily outdistanced his nearest competitor, who scored 246 points. The third money winner scored 245 points and the fourth 244 points, all the other three money winners being Dayton players.

There were 14 entries in the quirt contest, four cash prizes of $45, $30, $15 and $10 being offered. In the match play Thursday that decided the contest the Xenia pitcher garnered seven ringers three of them against one player. He is also adept at horseshoe pitching but was prevented from entering that contest because of conflict with the quirt contests.

William Smith and J. C. Merritt of the Xenia Club were also entered in the contests. Young Frame is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Watt Frame of West Market Street.

Joe Hagler, local race horse driver, was in the money twice with two steppers from his stable at the County Fair races at Marysville Wednesday. Harry McKinney, won third money in the 2:28 trot, by finishing 9-3-3. The purse was $400. Shadyuma with

Xenia citizens will vote on a proposed amendment to the city charter eliminating primary elections for City Commission candidates in case the number of expressed candidates is not greater than twice the number of places to be filled, at the regular election next November.

An ordinance providing that that issue be placed before the people at the November balloting was placed on its first reading at a special meeting of the City Commission Thursday afternoon. Although there will be no vote on the proposed ordinance until the regular meeting next Thursday, it is expected that it will be passed unanimously.

The charter amendment was proposed following the recent primary in which the balloting had no effect on the status of the candidates who had filed, although it cost the city about $1,000 for election purposes. Judge H. L. Smith, president of the commission led a discussion favoring a movement to eliminate useless primaries at the last commission meeting in which all members present showed agreement.

The charter provides that twice as many candidates as there are vacancies to ensure on the commission, may be nominated at the primary. The charter however does not make provision for cases in which the candidates before the primary are within the legal limit without the aid of an elimination election. This was the case at the last primary when the number of candidates who filed was within the limit of twice the vacancies fixed by the charter. The election therefore had no effect on nominating the candidates.

The proposed amendment will eliminate the primary except in cases where the candidates who file exceed by more than twice as many the vacancies to be filled. In that case the primary will be held. In case there are just twice as many candidates as vacancies or less, there will automatically be no primary election.

A CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to assure all our friends who were so kind and helpful during the sickness of our mother, Mrs. Anna Harris, and so thoughtful and sympathetic after her death, that it is not possible for us to say how much their tender courtesies lightened the great burden of our affliction; and to the pastor, Rev. Dr. Hill, to Rev. T. D. Scott whose discourse was so beautiful and tender, to Dean Woodson and President Gregg, for their appreciative remarks and for the touching prayer of the latter, we tender our especial thanks; also to those who sent so many beautiful flowers; nor would we forget the efficient services of Mr. J. C. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Henderson, Wilberforce, Ohio.

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, E. A. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Mrs. Carrie Holmes, East Main Street, is spending a few days in Saginaw, Michigan, as the guest of her husband, R. E. Holmes and son, Robert.

FANS SIGNING FOR TRIP

Fans are signing to make the bus trip to Harshmanville where the Xenia Bayliffs will take on the Harshman nine in the second game of a series Sunday afternoon.

Papers for the bugs who intend to make the trip to sign are available in most of the cigar stores and billiard halls. In addition to the published list the papers are also on file at the L. E. John billiard halls, The Arcade and the National.

MADE A HIT WITH HIM

"My wife has taken your medicine and has been wonderfully benefited. For over four years she has had trouble with bloating and could scarcely eat any food because of this condition. Doctor's medicines did not help her and an operation was advised. Her brother, who is a druggist, sent her a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it helped her at once. I cannot praise your medicine enough. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre & Hemphill and druggists everywhere. adv

MT. TABOR

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thompson and son took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thompson of Dayton, the occasion being their 5th wedding anniversary.

Mr. George Murry spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. M. A. Strong and family.

The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Stella Stevens, of Xenia.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, SEPT. 13.

BABIES ARE EXAMINED Three babies were examined at the Kiwanis Club baby clinic at the Social Service League Thursday morning.

Two of the infants were new cases. Dr. C. C. Messenger, who conducted the clinic prescribed for one baby a course of medicine and for the other a course of medicine.

LINCOLN DID NOT EXPECT THE RAVENS TO FEED HIM—WHY SHOULD YOU OR I?

Contrary to a general impression, Lincoln was not a poor man when he died. All his life he was industrious and thrifty. For years his savings were necessarily small—but he always saved something. He continually strived to get ahead and to acquire a reasonable financial independence. He was generous. He did an immense amount of hard work for other people for which he never received a cent. But he constantly kept before him the idea that he should, if possible, lay up a substantial sum for a rainy day. When he was elected President, at the age of fifty-one, he had accumulated $25,000, which in those days was a very considerable amount. As Miss Tarbell points out, his whole financial philosophy can be summed up in these words: "A man should work, do his best, lay up something for the future, and help his brother man when he can."

Plain common sense, you say. Yes, but rare, wherever you find it. This thing we call "common sense" is usually a statement of what men should do, not what they actually do. At any rate, it is comforting to know, authoritatively and in detail, just how this man looked at these matters. After all, Lincoln was the highest type of American—distinguished above everything for his ideals. Yet there is the bread-and-butter side of life, and it is interesting to have the particulars of how this great and wise man viewed things from that point of view.

If anybody in the United States had a right to imagine that the world owed him a living, Lincoln did. For years he did nothing but give, give, give to his country.

But that did not disturb Lincoln's equilibrium. He realized perfectly that so far as his personal independence and obligations were concerned, he must attend to them if they were to be attended to. If everybody had as good a sense of responsibility for himself as Lincoln had there would not be the necessity of doing so much for the country!

Most of the folks we know are either too excited about accumulating a ridiculous amount of money, or they are not careful to save any. Lincoln was a rare man in this respect, just as he was in most other respects. He had what is foolishly called—plain "horse sense."

THE FARMER NOT "BROKE."

The value of all crops in 1923 in the United States will be a billion dollars more than in 1922. With one of the biggest corn crops in history corn is selling at 86 cents as compared with 62.2 cents a year ago. Oats are five cents a bushel higher than they were a year ago; there has been the same increase in the price of barley. One seventh of the value of all farm products is in dairy products, and these are about twenty per cent higher in return to the producer than they were a year ago. Yet because the price of one farm product is so low as to be unprofitable today the air is filled with outcry about the bankruptcy of the farmer. The farmer has suffered from deflation. He is bearing part of the burden of higher labor costs. He is a long way from being "broke," however, and his condition is improving; improving so fast that it is up to the calamity howlers to make hay while the sun doesn't shine.

OUR PROSPERITY.

Gradually the people of this country are more clearly comprehending the tremendous achievements of the Harding administration in the field of economic reconstruction. Millions of men, unemployed when President Harding was inaugurated, now working at profitable wages, is the best answer to those who seek to discredit the Republican record. President Harding was another advance agent of prosperity. It is unfortunate that he could not live to witness the full fruition of his labors, but the American people will continue to enjoy the heritage so long as they stand by the policies which made the return of "good times" to the nation possible.

A system of hot water heating is being put in at the county Jail. Workmen, engaged in cutting through the floor of the jail came across an odd find in the way of some bent and twisted iron rods, recalling the story of an escape of a man named Johns from the County Jail some years ago. Johns used the rods procured from a trainway along the upper cells, to pry up one of the heavy flagstones on the floor. Since then the stones have been covered by four inches of cement.

O. S. and S. O. Home Weekly Governor Nash declined last week to approve plans for the new armory on the grounds that he did not believe they could be carried out within the limits of the appropriation. Mr. Fred C. Kelly, who has been forgetting the eternal skirmish for news the past week and has been enjoying a life of luxury and ease over in the Hoosier state has returned home after this round of gaiety. Fred has again settled down to business.

DIES AT WHEEL OF HIS AUTOMOBILE

Frank McCloud, 51 of 46 Frank street, Dayton, former race horse owner and restaurant man died at the steering wheel of his automobile at Main and Apple streets, Dayton, Thursday morning.

Finding him unconscious at the wheel of his machine, a pedestrian drove him to Miami Valley Hospital before the arrival of the police ambulance. Coroner E. E. Kinnel said death was due to heart trouble although he was in good health when he left home.

Mr. McCloud was born May 5, 1872 at Versailles, Ohio. He came to Dayton when 20 years of age and started a cafe at Sixth and Ludlow streets, later moving to Fourth and Jefferson streets. He was long known as a harness horse enthusiast and owned many campaigners that worked on the tracks in this section. He was well known among horsemen here and in other parts of the state.

Mr. McCloud married Miss Daisy Rossiter of this city, who survives him. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. J. L. Stern and Mrs. James Thompson, Dayton; two step-sisters, Mrs. Frank Booth and Mrs. Gordon Show, Dayton and two nephews, William Lee Brown of the U. S. Navy and Frank J. Brown of Dayton.

Funeral services will be held here Sunday afternoon and burial will be made in Woodland Cemetery, this city.

Repeat row one for all the work working the pocket bands long enough to extend across top of pockets, then sew them in place. Sew pockets in place of water side. work the same kind of band, it sew up the front edge, with button holes in it.

Tomorrow—Putting Up The Favorite Pieces

LITERALLY thousands of letters recommending the use of S. S. S.—the great blood purifier and system builder—all telling how S. S. S. restores the state of well being by creating red blood cells are received daily by the manufacturers of S. S. S. What S. S. S. has done for others it will do for you. Is your vitality sapped—your courage gone—your health undermined—your brain musty—the old time fighting spirit missing? Do you want to get back to the days of "once before"—the days when you were young and strong—healthy and buoyant—when your brain was active and your spirit alive with ambition?

S. S. S. is the surest and safest way to restore health, energy and vitality. Since 1826, S. S. S. has been bringing back clear, sparkling eyes—radiant expressions of well-being—building up nerve power—sending red blood coursing through the system—building red blood cells. Your nerve power is born in the blood cell. Increase your red blood cells and watch yourself improve.

S. S. S. makes stronger and healthier bodies—bodies free from impurities—free from rheumatism—free from skin eruptions—eczema, blackheads, pimples and boils. Any leading drug store will supply you and, for economy, get a large size bottle.

Too many people keep "beating the odds"

Unfortunate as it may seem to you to have lost all—as you often feel that you have—you are really at that time more fortunate than ever. For then it is that you have everything to win!

You cannot win all the time. Neither can you lose all the time.

The greatest thought that can come to you is that you have everything to win. Have you never thought of it in this light?

Henry Ford was a poor man at 40. At 60 he is the richest man in the world. And he is rich in much more than mere money. You see he had everything to win—and so he went ahead with faith in himself to win.

You are apt to say, because you are discouraged today, that this day went out and that you will try and forget it. But remember this, if you have failed today, you have all the rest of your days in which to win.

So I would say: Go to sleep tonight with the dream of winning and of happiness in your heart. And then tomorrow will take care of itself, and of you.

FORMER MATRON SERIOUSLY ILL

Columbus, Sept. 5.—John McNamara, assistant welfare director, left for Deer Park, Md., to bring back Mrs. McNamara, former matron of the Girls' Industrial home, who has been there for the past two weeks. Mrs. McNamara went to the resort with a hope of her failing health being improved, but a message from there was to the effect that her physical condition was no better and that the attending physician had recommended her immediate return to her home.

STRAW REFERENDUM PROPOSED

Cleveland, Sept. 5.—Efforts to secure votes for a straw referendum on modification of the Volstead act to permit the use of light wine and beer are under way in Cleveland. Representatives of the National Liberal Alliance, Washington, are preparing to place ballot boxes in theaters, stores and on street corners.

And remember this: The greatest thing you can give to the one you love or to the world, is the richest of yourself. For when we feel that we have truly given to someone else, we feel that we have fulfilled the most divine purpose within us.

There really isn't time for regrets. That which is ahead of you is what counts most. Let this be the thought that spurs you on: There is everything to win!

Beavercreek school opened on Tuesday morning with full attendance. In the high school the largest attendance in the history of the school is reported. The registration numbers ninety-four with several pupils yet to enter. It is confidently expected that the one hundred mark will be reached.

The following teachers are in charge of the high school: Letitia Dillencourt, principal, Latin and English; Florence Smith, History and Social Science; Katherine Warner, Domestic Science and English; Earl Collins, Science and Mathematics; A. V. Kessel, Smith-Hughes Agriculture; Walter R. Sayre, vocal music and orchestra.

Miss Smith will have charge of the girls athletics and physical training and Mr. Collins will have charge of the boys.

The Beavercreek grades will be taught by the following teachers: No. 1, Concord, Osceola Burke; No. 2, Brown, Charlotte Louis; No. 3, Alec, Louis Elam; No. 4, Benham, Carrie Louis; No. 5, Cantz, Lillie McCov; No. 6, Trebeins, Frank Duncan; No. 7, Beaver, Frances Thompson; No. 8, Ludlow, Alveta Netherton; No. 9, Rural Home Dorothy Walton; No. 10, Sunny Side Otis Hart; No. 11, New Liberty, Frank Zink; No. 12, Zimmerman, Pimery, Gladys Greer; Advanced, Mrs. Jones, No. 13, Alpha, Miss Eleanor Bakerstrom.

It is an interesting fact that the grade teachers, with a few exceptions and one of the high school teachers are graduates of Beaver creek High School. This is a fine commentary on community loyalty.

INTEREST ATTACHES LOCALLY TO MEETING NATIONAL W. C. T. U.

Much interest is being felt in Greene county in the annual convention of The National Women's Christian Temperance Union opened Friday in Columbus. The convention will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the Women's Temperance Crusade, in which many Greene County and Xenia women, pioneers in the temperance movement, participated.

The Ohio State convention of the W. C. T. U. was held in Columbus September 6, the day prior to the opening of the national convention. Temperance women held their first official meeting prior to the convention, September 4, when the national executive board went into session. The state executive board held its annual session September 5.

Miss Mary B. Ervin, of this city, world and national secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion is a member of the national executive board by virtue of her office. She is the only Ohio woman holding office on the national board. The following Greene County women are members of the state executive board: Mrs. Carrie L. Flatter, president of The Greene County W. C. T. U.; Mrs. W. O. Cusick, Mrs. M. E. Snodgrass, Mrs. Walter L. Dean and Miss Mary Ervin.

While the state convention is in session, the delegates to the national convention held a prayer service for the welfare of the state convention at the Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church.

The conventions will open each day with departmental conferences from 9:30 to 11:30. The opening session of the national convention and the president's address was held Friday morning. In the afternoon national officers and branch secretaries gave reports of 1923 activities. In the evening there will be a get-together dinner.

The principal features of Saturday will be the street pageant, "March of Allegiance" in which 5,000 persons are expected to take part. Mrs. Mary Harris Armour of Georgia, will address a mass meeting Sunday afternoon. Convention business will occupy the daytime sessions.

A number of distinguished speakers will appear on the evening programs of September 2, 10, 11 and 12. Including Senator S. D. Fess, Representative Cooper and Governor Donahoe of Ohio; Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general; Roy B. Haynes, Federal Prohibition Director; Grace Abbott, chief U. S. Children's Bureau; and Ernest H. Cherrington, general secretary of the World League Against Alcoholism. It is expected that Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania will be the chief speaker for Sunday evening. In addition notable women of the W. C. T. U. will be heard.

TO CONSERVE TIME OF TEACHING HERE

Increased enrollment at Central High School expected this year will necessitate conservation of the entire teaching time as much as possible, according to C. A. Waitz, school superintendent.

The teaching staff has not been increased numerically for the regular academic work, in spite of the anticipated greater enrollment, it is said. Fewer teachers will be available for academic work on the other hand because of the new requirement for physical education, which necessitates full time of one teacher in that department.

Classes will all be full and consequently students will be limited to the four regular subjects and will not be permitted to take five subjects in those cases where an extra credit is needed to graduate with the class, Mr. Waitz has announced.

WARD MUST STAND TRIAL ON CHARGE

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Walter Ward, son of the millionaire baker, George Ward, will have to stand trial Sept. 21 on the charge of murdering Clarence S. Peters, ex-marine, on May 16, 1922. Judge Wagner refused to dismiss the indictment and also to grant bail to Ward. Judge Wagner held that while some illegal evidence had been presented to the grand jury which returned the indictment, he was persuaded that the jury had not been influenced by it and that sufficient prima facie evidence had been submitted to support the indictment and to take the case before a jury. The justice held that there was no "exceptional circumstance" to justify the granting of bail to a man charged with homicide.

Sheriff Morris Sharp, Deputy John Baughn and Prosecutor J. K. Williamson went to Dayton Thursday to attend the trials of Bert Blair, Xenia, and Bert Coons, of east of Xenia, scheduled for Thursday before U. S. Commissioner Carl Lenz on charges of conspiracy to violate the federal prohibition laws.

Coons was arrested here several months ago on a charge of manufacturing liquor and is said to have implicated Blair as the leader in an alleged liquor ring in the county. Blair's arrest by Deputy U. S. Marshal Carson Pratt followed.

CRUSADERS of early temperance days are being honored throughout the sessions of the Crusade Anniversary Convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union which began in Memorial Hall, Columbus, O., on Sept. 4, and continues until Sept. 14.

Several thousand women will take part in a March of Allegiance, a spectacular street parade, in which all the delegates will join together with leading women from all the other women's organizations in Columbus, Saturday afternoon, September 8.

Floats showing the work of the twenty-six departments of W. C. T. U. work and the progress of the organization since 1874, will be a feature of this parade.

Mrs. John Gordon Battelle, appointed a member of the National Republican Committee by the late President, Warren G. Harding, headed a Committee of 5,000 Columbus women, who welcomed the W. C. T. U. delegates from all over the United States.

Distinguished speakers, addressing various sessions of the convention, are: Gov. Donahoe, Miss Grace Abbott, Senator Fess, Representative Cooper, Mrs. Mabel Walker Wille-

brandt and Dr. Mary Harris Armour, "the Georgia Cyclone." State presidents on the program include Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith, Iowa; Mrs. Lillian M. Mitchner, Kansas; Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, California; Mrs. Nelle G. Burger, Missouri, and Mrs. Florence Richard, Ohio.

Miss Anna A. Gordon, world and national president of the W. C. T. U. in her address stressed the influence of women in bringing about the prohibition amendment and the outlook for the 1924 election.

Some time during the coming month, a public initiation would be held near this city when the community will be invited to witness the initiatory work.

BOYS INITIATED INTO K. K. K. ORDER

Although rain threatened to forestall postponement of the initiation of the Greene County K. K. K. Junior Order, clearing skies greeted an estimated crowd of several thousand people on the Siefert farm south of Xenia, Thursday evening, when it is reported that 540 boys from Greene County were initiated into the Junior Order.

A stage had been erected in one end of the field and was lighted by electricity, while the field was surrounded by robed figures, who guarded the enclosure.

At the explosion of a bomb, headed by the young men, each holding a red light, started their march toward the stage where the obligation and instructions were received.

After the ritualistic work, state and national organizers delivered talks declaring "the organization stands for the tenants of the Christian religion, protection of womanhood, elimination of mob violence and strikes by foreign agitators, law and order and co-operation with local authorities in suppressing law violations."

Announcement was made that

LAY CORNERSTONE OF CHURCH SUNDAY

The cornerstone of the new Presbyterian Church at New Osborn, will be laid Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with special ceremonies.

The Rev. D. J. Good, of the Patterman Memorial Presbyterian Church of Dayton, will make the principal address at the exercises.

WOULD REBUILD BARN

Columbus, Sept. 7.—John E. Harper, director of public welfare, has sent a request to the state board of control asking for an appropriation of $20,000 with which to build a new barn at the reformatory at Mansfield.

The old barn, together with its entire contents, was recently destroyed by fire. The state carries no insurance on any of its property.

Prof. Buchanan is an instructor in the American College in Tokio and the family have made their home there for several years. The family usually spends the summers in the mountains and relatives here are hoping that they may have been out of the city when the destruction came. Mrs. Buchanan has a number of relatives in this county.

PROMOTER OF FOREIGN MISSION
Cleveland, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Julia Clapp Georuld, widely known as a founder and promoter of foreign missions, is dead at her home here at the age of 80 years.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 7.—White flannel knickers, a dimpling smile, a mass of chestnut brown hair and a roller chair of white cloth and red roses, won the first of the "national beauty titles" for Miss Charlotte Nash, St. Louis entrant, in the beauty pageant here. The prize was for the "best general appearance," and the crowd along the board walk was all for Miss St. Louis. Other prizes in this class were won by Miss Elizabeth Mallory of Memphis, Miss Marian Green of Philadelphia, Miss Isabel Lynch of Pottsville and Miss Ethelinda Keavin of Brooklyn. The pageant opened with hundreds of floats in line, and at the head rode the 73 intercity beauties, from whom will be picked "America's most beautiful." Airplanes roared overhead and thousands of spectators lined the boardwalk.

MR. W. H. BUSH, COLUMBUS, O.
"I had pains on my stomach after every meal, although I was very careful what I ate," says Mr. W. H. Bush, a well-known carpenter, of 534 East Cherry street, Columbus.

"Sometimes the pain would catch me around my heart and I could hardly get my breath. It takes all the joy out of life when you cannot eat without suffering for it afterwards and I have missed many a meal when I was hungry as I knew the misery it would cause me. I was as nervous as could be and could not sleep well at all."

"I have been taking Ka-di-ok on and off for some months, and it always seems to hit the spot and never fails to relieve me whenever I have a bad attack of stomach trouble. I can eat hearty and any sort of rich food and there is no comeback or indigestion. I have been able to sleep well and feel in good condition. Ka-di-ok is a wonderful medicine and I gladly recommend it to all my friends who don't feel right."

Ka-di-ok can be had in Xenia at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store. adv

When Something is Offered For Nothing, Or Where an Extra Profit is Offered Above What is Economically Safe.

More than a hundred years have passed since Benjamin Franklin penned this warning. Yet, what a good motto it is today.

There are still with us those who would have us forget that value received and price paid must always balance. In the long run, however, people don't forget. We are building for the future. Conservatism, careful judgment and careful statement were valued yesterday, are valued today and will be valued tomorrow.

STRIKE TALK HEARD IN GERMANY

Berlin, Sept. 7.—The American dollar is officially worth 3,200,000 marks, but buys 4,000,000 marks in private dealings. It is understood that the reichstag report will show a further trebling of the floating debt in the last 10 days of August, bringing the total to 1,000,000,000,000 marks. The new collapse of the mark and the madly increasing prices disarrange all wage agreements, and strike talk is beginning to be heard.

TWO MEN FOUND DEAD.

Mansfield, O., Sept. 5.—Two farmers, Cashel Adams, 77, and Christian Kinsey, 71, were found dead on their farms. Heart trouble is given as the cause in each instance. Mr. Adams started to a field where his nephew, Deios Adams, was plowing. He was found lying in the field dead. Mr. Kinsey died on top of a straw stack.

A New and Better Way to Can

you can put up all fruits and vegetables without standing over a scorching stove—without suffering discomforts of any kind.

With the Lorain Oven Method fruits and vegetables are cooked in Mason jars—in the oven, keeping their color, firmness and fresh-from-the-garden taste far better than when canned any other way.

Ask us for a free copy of the beautifully illustrated booklet, "Lorain Oven Canning." Let us demonstrate "Oven Canning," "Whole Meal Cooking," and "How to Bake and Cook Without Ever a Failure"—all in the oven of a Lorain-equipped Gas Range.

new auditorium. The schools are also further indebted to Mr. J. W. Santmyer, President of the Board of Education for five new flags for the out side flag poles of each school building. These flags will all be unfurled to the air on next Monday morning in accordance with the law.

Owing to the fact that the work men at the new Central High School building have been busy rushing the interior work to completion the new flag pole at this building has not yet been erected. This will be done within the course of a few days.

GREENE COUNTY TO OBSERVE MONDAY JAPAN RELIEF DAY

Apportionment of the $5,000,000 fund promised by the American Red Cross for the relief of the Japanese sufferers of the recent earthquakes, fires and floods, will mean that Xenia and Greene County must raise between $1,500 and $1,600 officials announced Friday.

It was not expected that a quota would be fixed for the Greene County chapter, but decision to increase the total was supplemented with the announcement that the entire amount will be apportioned among the 3,000 and more chapters in the country.

Co-operation of the Greene County Ministerial Association and all the local Red Cross committees is being sought by Red Cross officials here in the campaign to reach the assigned quota. Monday has been set as Japan Relief Day in Greene County and Red Cross workers have been assigned in each town in the County to accept contributions.

People in Xenia city are being asked to contribute to people who will be posted in Xenia stores Saturday or to Mrs. Louis Allison, who has been made chairman of the collections in the city. Checks should be made payable to the Greene County Red Cross. Of the apportionment made for Greene County, each township will have an average of $100 to subscribe and $600 has been assigned to Xenia City.

Headquarters for the campaign have been established in the various towns as follows: Yellow Springs, Finley's drug Store; Bowersville, the Warnock store; Spring Valley, Copsey's grocery store; Jamestown, Johnson's Jewelry Store; Cedarville, Farquhar's clothing store.

The following communities do not have local headquarters and contributors there should send their donations to the Red Cross, Court House, Xenia; New Jasper Twp.; Caesar creek Twp.; Ross Twp.; and Beaver creek Township.

CITY SCHOOLS ARE SUPPLIED WITH FLAGS

Through the kindness of the Women's Relief Corps each room of the new Central High School Building is supplied with a large American Flag. The schools will be indebted to the Catherine Greene Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution for a beautiful silk flag for the

WANTS NO STATE CASES
Columbus, Sept. 7.—Municipal Judge Seidel from the bench took occasion to assail the state prohibition department. He said: "I don't care to entertain any cases of the state department after they have broken into print with their criticism; they are dirty rats. I have not found the right spirit among the state liquor law enforcement officers. I'll hear their cases, but I would rather they took them to the justice of the peace—those high-browed jurists of the county."

Troy Sept. 6.—Secret indictments on charges of extortion were returned against the Rev. S. A. Blessing, West Milton, prohibition officer and Mayor I. Karna of West Milton by the Grand Jury that reported yesterday.

Each was indicted on four counts. The charges are said to be based on too zealous application of the state dry laws and excessive fines and resulted in an indignation meeting in Piqua recently when a protest on the operations of Blessing and Karna was sent to Governor Donahey.

SET-BACK GIVEN FILIPINOS WHO TRY NEW PLAN

Manila, Sept. 5.—Filipino politicians who tried to utilize the recent trip of the Filipino athletes to Japan in connection with the Far Eastern Olympiad for independence propaganda purposes, received a severe set-back at the hands of the Japanese press, according to reports just reaching Manila.

A considerable number of members of the Philippine legislature accompanied the athletes, styling themselves the "Philippine Parliamentary Delegation." Their leader, Senator Francisco Enage, issued a statement in Tokyo saying, among other things:

"It is hoped that Japan will not be indifferent to the national aspiration of the Filipino people to become a free and independent nation, doing everything that she can along diplomatic lines for the realization of Philippine independence and, when this is secured, for its preservation. The Philippines, as an independent country, could co-operate better and more efficiently with Japan in the affairs of the Orient than as a dependent country, which she actually is."

Only one paper in Japan, the Osaka Manchi, having the largest circulation, took up the overtone, but not in a manner anticipated by the "diplomats." It said:

"It must be observed that the generous attitude of the United States of America toward the national aspiration of the Filipino people has emboldened the 'Parliamentary Delegation' to issue this statement while it is staying in this country as our guests of honor. America often expressed her willingness to give independence to the Philippines and any action on the part of third party countries concerning this problem 'along diplomatic lines' will not conflict with the interests of America. It is generally understood that the realization of Philippine independence, is after all, a question of time, and there is no doubt that the American nation itself views this problem in the same light. Our Filipino friends should be congratulated upon the magnanimous attitude of the American nation toward their legitimate aspirations for national independence."

"KING OF JAZZ" TO FURNISH PROGRAM

Handy's Original Band, with W. C. Handy, "King of Jazz" himself and Sarah Martin, "World's Greatest Blues Singer," whose voice is popular on hundreds of phonograph records, will furnish a feast for lovers of syncopation at City Hall Theater Monday, September 10, through arrangements with the Standard Amusement Company of this city.

Handy is better known through his "blues" numbers. He sprang into prominence with "Memphis Blues" and followed it with "St. Louis Blues." Later came "Beale St. Blues," dedicated to his home street in Memphis, "Harlem Blues," "John Henry Blues," "Yellow Dog Blues," "Loveless Love," "Sundown Blues," "Darktown Revelle," "Heating Blues," "Jogo Blues" and his latest hit, "Aunt Hagar Blues."

Miss Martin made her first hit on Okeh records with "Sugar Blues," and she has made records since for 14 companies, her most popular numbers including "Michigan Water Blues," "Laughin' Cryin' Blues," "Come Home Papa," "Mama's Got the Blues" and others. The program is booked as the Handy-Martin Concert and will furnish syncopated melody in all its variations.

The Girl Scouts attended in uniform as honorary escort. She was laid to rest in the family lot in Woodland.

By Jane Phelps

CHAPTER XXI

Although annoyed that Paul would tell me nothing concerning his position with the Motor Company, I was really happier than I had been in a long time. Just knowing he had work, was at least earning something in a business that might be permanent, gave me such satisfaction as I had not known for years.

Quite regularly he gave me money for my own and the children's needs, not much to be sure, but enough so that by careful planning I was able to get along. All other bills he attended to. Rather he told me he did, and as we ceased to be dunned I had no reason to doubt him.

With this surcease from worry I became younger, both in spirit and in looks. Not only my mirror, but my friends told me so. I took more pains with appearance, my clothes. Nothing makes a woman so careless as constant worry, and almost unconsciously I had allowed myself to become indifferent. Paul noticed, remarked upon my improved appearance. I said:

"A woman—you, had no right to let yourself grow careless. Once a woman is a trifle all her charm is gone. See that you don't let down again. You're getting on, can't afford to neglect yourself."

"I am getting aged, almost 27," I replied, laughing, Paul's remarks about women always amused me.

Several weeks had passed since Dave Logan dined with us. I had almost forgotten he had said he would come again, when Paul telephoned he was bringing him down to dinner and added:

I promised, feeling a bit hurt that he had not said get someone to help me with the preparation of dinner. It was not of me, to help me, he wanted a waitress, but to impress Dave Logan. Nevertheless I engaged the girl, then spent the rest of the day in the kitchen, determined to have the very nicest dinner I knew how to prepare. Logan had been a good friend to us, had given me a few weeks of happiness, of departure from anxiety over money matters.

It was a warm day, and I was

through dinner so making me feel at ease with him. "You seem like a young girl tonight."

"I'm anything but that," I replied flushing under his gaze. "I'm an old married woman with two big children."

"No one would believe it to see you tonight," he said. Then Paul, who was always uneasy unless he were included in the conversation, broke in and changed the subject by speaking of the latest war news in the paper, declaring America would surely be dragged into it.

"You will be exempt anyway. Norwood Logan remarked. "You're too old to be drafted, and have a wife and children."

It seemed almost ridiculous that they should talk as if we were going into the war. As yet, such a contingency had scarcely been suggested.

Tomorrow—Paul Resigns From The Motor Company.
